

David England – Testimony

I gave my life completely to Christ in my junior year of High School. I had been exposed to the Gospel most of my life but there came a moment one night in my home in Kettering where I wept over my sin and truly repented. After that I was baptized at Fairhaven in Kettering. Upon graduation I joined the Air Force and on my own floundered for a time in my commitment to Christ. Thank goodness once God has got ahold on you, you don't stay in the mire for long. Upon getting out of the Air Force I met my wife in a solid church in Omaha, NE. Both of us though didn't get counsel from church which I believe might have saved us from the disaster of a divorce. Because there was no abuse or adultery we didn't seek a divorce but she decided to later. I am uncertain why she did that. All I know is that I am now 63 years old and realize I am closer to the end of my life. I want to finish the race well. I have asked God to use me despite the fact that I am an example of how to squander a life that God presented early in life with a clear calling. Like so many others I can still finish life totally sold out to Him. I also realize now that I need the body of Christ to make sure that happens. I would like for Lighthouse Baptist Church to be that body I serve with.
