

Jaime Vagedes - Testimony

Before Christ, I lived my life the way I wanted to live. I put myself first, took people for granted, cursed, smoked, and made decisions based on what I wanted rather than considering what God wanted for my life. I was living for myself instead of living for Him.

It was during a difficult time in my life that I began attending church. The more I heard God's Word and learned about Jesus, the more I wanted to know Him. I began to feel Him working in my heart and changing the things I desired.

I knew Jesus was changing me because things that once seemed normal to me no longer felt right. I no longer wanted to surround myself with the same crowd, watch the same television shows, or participate in the sinful activities that had been part of my life for so many years. My desires, priorities, and the way I looked at my life began to change.

I am far from perfect, and I know that God is still working in me. The difference is that I am no longer simply living according to what I want. I seek Jesus for direction and want my decisions and my life to reflect Him. My desire is to continue growing in my faith, to live for Christ, to honor His name and His glory, and to become the person He has called me to be.

Attending lighthouse – 3+ year. I was baptized by immersion in 2019 at Patterson Park Church.

Favorite Verse – “And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”
