

Before I was saved, I was trying to figure out life on my own. During a chaotic time of my life, I began reading the Bible and feeling a peace that I could not explain. I began asking my Christian coworkers questions and I could feel God guiding me.

He gave me courage and direction. I could feel that He was the way and the life I needed. I prayed for salvation with my coworker Shelby and her pastor at a coffee shop in April. I now feel peace during a time of my life when I know I would feel anxious without God, and it is because I know He is with me. God is always guiding me and I have learned to trust Him fully.

Thanks to my friends, Shelby, Ally, and Alex, I was invited to church and Bible studies, where I have learned and continue to learn so much. I am so grateful for what they have led me to and taught me.

Since I have been saved, I have been truly reliant on God. I have learned He is the way and to trust the path he takes me on. I strive to be more like Him in my daily life, reading His Word to guide me and surrounding myself with Christian friends that help me grow in my faith. I want to learn more about God so that I can be a Godly example to my two year old daughter as she grows up.

The verse that has stuck out to me in my walk is John 14:27: "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

-Julia Sanders