

Matt Rufo – Testimony

I was about 10 yrs old when my family was doing a night devo about how everyone sins, and the penalty of those sins is death, separation from God eternally, and going to a place called hell. After the devo was finished, I asked my mom how to be saved. That night I accepted Jesus as my Savior. I realized there was nothing I could do that would get me into heaven, and that the only way was giving my life to Christ, asking for forgiveness of my sins, and trusting in Him as my savior. A couple years later, I got baptized in my former church. My favorite verse is the first one that I memorized in Awana as a kid, that being John 3:16, which states, For God so loved the World that He gave his only begotten Son that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.
