

Patty Pritchard – Testimony

I understand that we are born into sin, and it is our nature to be sinful. We cannot live for Christ on our own, He has to help us. We must repent of our sins and ask forgiveness. Sin is not obeying God's laws, and we know from scripture that the wages of sin is death.

To the best of my knowledge, I got saved when I was a sophomore in high school and attending a Christian school. I grew up believing in Jesus and felt the need to commit my life to Him publicly. When I was in my 30's and young adult life, life got in the way, and I wandered away from the faith. As I got older in my 40's I returned intermittently. I could see where God had intervened in my life but I hadn't fully committed to Him again. After the loss of my husband of 30 years, I was devastated. The grief was nearly unbearable. I watched how my daughter was handling her own grief and hardships and she inspired me to reconsider church and Jesus.

God has been working to show me that if I trust Him and follow His ways, life is so much better.

Foundations has been like a refresher course in the basics of Christianity. It's helped me get back to those basic beliefs and trust again.

I love listening to Christian podcasts and I'd rather read the Bible or books by Christian authors than secular books.

Jesus shows me every day that He's with me. He is surrounding me with wonderful Christian people and a Pastor that is so knowledgeable and presents the Word of God in a realistic and understandable way.

“Trust the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Seek His will in all you do, and He will show you which path to take.” – Proverbs 3:5-6 NLT
