Testimony

Rebecca Steward

Before I got saved, God was trying to get me to come back to Church for years but I ignored his calling. I used to lie, cheat, cuss, and did not connect with God like I should have. I was never taught how to connect with God. We didn't have daily devotions, and going to church was mandatory till I was 18; then it was by choice. I quit going around 29 when I moved out of my parent's house. As soon as that happened, I concentrated on my career. Then I met a boy. We lived like the world, in immorality, instead of God's will. That is when my world came crashing down. After he cheated, and we later broke up, my life changed for the worse. I lost everything I owned, had to move back to my parents' house, and started looking for another job. My life was in chaos till I started going back to Church. Everything started to slowly calm down. I know now that I only need Jesus, and he hears me when I call him.

I have always believed in Jesus, and had known that he has always been there, but I was ignoring him. I got saved around July 1, 2026 during Foundations class with Pastor Josh teaching. This has made me happier, easier to talk to and more loyal to Jesus. My anxiety and depression have improved. I haven't been so angry. I am more open to see what God has planned in my life. I have a desire to know God's word. I now want to go to Church on Sundays, Sunday evenings, and Wednesday evenings.

My favorite verse is Philippians 4:6-7. Be anxious for nothing but in everything by prayer and Thanksgiving, let your request be made known to God, and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ.
