

Tate Cockman – Testimony

I grew up in church and in a Christian family. God, blessed me with a wonderful Christian family that helped me to abstain from a sinful lifestyle as I was growing up. I learned the gospel as a child and believed it, but I would not give Jesus my life. When I was 12, I finally surrendered and repented of my sin. Since then, I believe the Lord has called me to serve Him vocationally, and I strive to live for Him while I look forward to that day. God has taught me that righteousness is not a checklist but daily slaughtering of the old man to be replaced by Christ. He has helped me in this through good times and bad. At college and at home, with family, and especially with my wife Kayla. God is the only reason I would ever be able to lead her well.

We have been coming to Lighthouse for about 2 months. It was the only option really because Pastor Josh and Ty were huge when we had to leave our old church. Their ministry to us made it an obvious decision.
