

Aaron Fletcher

Born June 24, 1973 in Lyons, NY to Tom and Pat Fletcher. I'm the second of 4 kids and the only boy. My three sisters are Jennifer, Melissa, and Holly.

I was raised in almost every Christian tradition you can think of... Catholic, Pentecostal, Catholic (again), Lutheran, and Baptist along with an occasional non-denominational church. I've been baptized three times. In all of that bouncing around while my parents were sorting out their faith, God was giving me a faith of my own. On August 22, 1984, I received a copy of the New Testament from the Gideons at the county fair. I got home and read that little bible, eventually getting to the back page that talks about embracing Jesus as Lord and Savior. That night, clutching that little orange bible, I prayed to become a Christian. In 1986, my third baptism came as a public profession of my faith.

In 1988, our family moved to Northeast Ohio, where I cultivated a passion for my beloved Cleveland sports teams. That is also where I attended Kent State University and received a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice studies. I currently work in the field of Litigation Support, which I have been doing for almost 30 years. In 2009, I began working for the Department of Justice in the Civil Division where I currently serve as the division's Litigation Support Officer.

In 2004, I met Sarah. From the moment we met, I knew she was someone special. We were engaged in October 2005 and married on May 20, 2006 in Dallas, TX. In 2008, we decided to move east to be closer to family as we embarked on starting our own, so we came to Manassas. In July 2012, God blessed us with our son, Charlie. We were shocked, surprised, and amazed by God's grace since conceiving had been difficult for us. You can imagine how much more shocked, surprised, and amazed we were when God blessed us again with our daughter, Sadie, in January 2015.

Being raised in the church and always feeling called back to the faith in times of backsliding, the Lord has never let me go. After going through a season of deep anxiety, the last 15 years have been a time of massive spiritual growth for me. As God works in my life and in my heart, he has given me a love for his Word and a deeper understanding of His grace and mercy. It has been one of the great blessings of my life to raise our kids in the church to develop a strong faith and to see both of them be baptized.

In July of 2023, we came to Centreville Baptist Church and we felt immediately welcome. I was struck by the palpable sense of the presence of the Holy Spirit in this church. The last three years have been an amazing time for us as we have grown to call this our home. It has been an incredible blessing and privilege for us to serve as a family on the FIT team, lead a Community Group, and serve alongside so many wonderfully faithful saints.
