

Jeff Coward

I was blessed to be raised by two parents who loved the Lord, lived for Him, and taught me to do the same. Therefore, it was not surprising that at the age of 6, God used their example and words to lead me to a saving faith in Him.

My wife, Kathy, and I have been members of CBC for around 30 years. We have three children: Connor (age 32), Montana (age 27), and Killian (age 13). Since joining CBC, I have served and been active in the church in several capacities including numerous times as an elder, a deacon, Chairman of the Lay Leadership Search Committee, Chairman of the Lead Pastor Search Committee, member of the Global Missions team, R.A. basketball coach, and softball team member.

Although I have many interests, and enjoy serving God in various ways, my true passion is in the area of International Missions. Therefore, because of my family's support and CBC's emphasis on missions, I have been honored to lead High School and College students and adults on mission's trips to Russia, Spain, Ecuador, Romania, Jordan, Croatia, Malaysia, Scotland, Toronto and other locations. It is my prayer that this body of believers would realize the impacts that CBC's missions programs are having throughout the world, and would in turn be inspired by God to take action. With God's direction, I now look forward to serving you again as one of your elders.
