

Dear CBC Family,

Hard to believe fall has arrived! Let me put two outreach opportunities on your radar.

At the end of the month, Gia and I travel to the Philippines. Japhet, a former intern of mine who now pastors in Cebu and leads church planting there, invited me to preach at their annual pastors conference. We're bringing 300 pounds of books Crossway generously donated for the hundreds of pastors attending. I'll preach twice, lead a breakout on the attributes of God, host a marriage retreat, and preach at Japhet's church. Please pray for our safety and for spiritual fruit.

Closer to home, our annual Fall Festival is October 25. Hundreds of neighbors visit our campus each year, and several people have found CBC through it. A few years ago, I met a fireman who brought a truck for the event, and he and his family later joined. It's a wonderful opportunity for people to hear the gospel. Please mark your calendar, sign up to serve, invite your friends and neighbors, and bring your family!
