The very first Christmas was all about the best, unexpected gift that God picked out for us. We'll explore the Christmas story to reveal the unexpected wrapped in the gift of Jesus! Let's celebrate God's unearned grace, the unexpected gift of Jesus, that God can do the unbelievable, and God's undeniable goodness.

EVENT: CHRISTMAS PARTY

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16

RHYTHM: GENEROSITY

GRADES 6 - 8

SUNDAY MORNINGS

STARTING AUGUST 9 | DURING 2ND SERVICE

SERIES: FOUNDATIONS

Christianity is more than just another spiritual option. It uniquely tells us the truth about God, the world, and ourselves. Sin has tricked and trapped us in a life-constricting parody of reality apart from our Creator. Jesus came to free us from sin, so we could learn to live in the life-affirming light of the real world with God.

AUGUST - SEPTEMBER

SERIES: BREAKING THE MOLD

God is bigger and greater than we could ever comprehend, causing us to try and fit him into our man-made molds and missing out on truly knowing him. In this series, students will discover the ways they can know who God is and explore the difference between knowing about God and having an authentic relationship with him.

OCTOBER

SERIES: LOVE

Everybody desires to love and be loved, yet “love” is one of the most misunderstood topics in our culture. The narratives about this topic that the world offers are very different from the true image of love we see in God. This series will help students unpack their assumptions and beliefs about love.

NOVEMBER

SERIES: ADVENT

The four lessons in this series help prepare students’ hearts for the Christmas season by explaining why the world needed a Savior and how we should respond to His birth, life, death, and resurrection.
