Get To Know You Question:

What game brings out your competitive side the fastest?

Let's Dig Deeper

Someone read 1 Corinthians 3:1-9 Spend some time and share some key words that spoke out to you while reading. What is it about those words that spoke to you?

1. Why do you think not getting our way can reveal things about us that getting our way never does?

2. Read 1 Corinthians 3:1–2. What makes Paul's assessment surprising for a church with gifted teachers and confident believers?

3. What is something Christians can mistake for spiritual maturity because it is easier to measure than a changed heart?

4. How can we tell when "That's just how I am" has become permission to keep hurting people?

5. Read 1 Corinthians 3:3–4. What might Paul notice about the way Christians handle disagreements today?

6. What makes defending ourselves feel more urgent than understanding someone we have hurt?

7. How does jealousy influence the story we tell ourselves about someone else's success?

8. Read Numbers 12:1–2. How can we recognize when criticism has more to do with our desire for importance than the concern we raise?

9. What happens to a relationship when being proven right becomes more important than making things right?

10. Why can someone else's failure feel satisfying even when we know that response is wrong?

11. Read Numbers 12:13. What would need to change within us to respond this way to someone who had hurt us?

12. What makes praying for someone's good difficult when they have never acknowledged the harm they caused?

13. How might your attitude toward serving change if someone else consistently received credit for your work?

14. Read 1 Corinthians 3:5–9. How does this passage help us recognize where our responsibility ends and our need to trust God begins?

15. What is one area where you already know what obedience requires, but you keep waiting to feel differently before acting?

16. How have you been a blessing to someone this week? Share.

Close in Prayer.
