Please discuss your perception of a church leader of our congregation and your role:
A leader in our congregation should be someone who loves God and loves others. They should live faithfully and obediently by God's Word. They should know and care for the members of the church and be someone who encourages the members in their walk with Christ. They should have a clear understanding of scripture and what the Bible teaches. They should be someone who brings unity to the congregation through love. They should recognize that all members have been saved by God's grace and all are equal in God's sight. They need to have the ability to recognize all have value and a place in God's kingdom to be of service because of God's grace. Their view of members or those within the Church should be the same as those outside the Church. They should love people and be ambassadors of God's grace and motivated by the love and grace they have received by God.
