

THE CROSS ROAD

VOL. 14 NO. 20 - WEEK OF MAY 19TH, 2026

LORD, I NEED YOU

Yesterday morning (or really, lots of mornings), little things kept happening that made me huff and puff and grit my teeth. Mostly things that truly don't matter at all, but just tested my short fuse in the morning. Then suddenly, I remembered the chorus to the song, "Lord, I Need You" by Matt Maher:

Lord, I need You,
Oh, I need You
Every hour I need You
My one defense, my righteousness
Oh God, how I need You

Then, after dropping my kids off at school, I turned on The Daily Devo by the Worship Initiative. And wouldn't you know, "Lord, I Need You" was the song they were singing through! Think God might have been trying to remind me of something?

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing." - John 15:5

"God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble." - Psalm 46:1

Whether it's a normal Monday morning, a sweet night spent with my family, or a day that I experience heartache, I need the Lord. His Word tells us that we need Him. Apart from Jesus, I can do nothing, but He is my ever-present help.

It's freeing to know I have a Lord and Savior that I can depend on each day. He sustains me.

Here are some reflection questions for you as you go throughout your week:

- What moment in recent memory did you depend on God's strength?
- What about a moment where you didn't?
- What scripture do you turn to when you need to be reminded of where your strength comes from?

Love always,
