

3 LOOK AGAIN AT THE TIMING

- Don't postpone today's assignment because you're waiting for tomorrow's conditions.
- The disciples thought there was still time. Jesus said now.
- The harvest isn't always coming — sometimes it's already here.

SCRIPTURE

- John 4:35 (NKJV)

"Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes the harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest!"

4 LOOK AGAIN AT WHO GOD CAN USE

- You don't have to do everything, but you have a part.
- Some sow. Some water. Some reap.
- God can use your testimony, your invitation, your service, your generosity, and your willingness.
- Never disqualify yourself because your role doesn't look like someone else's.

SCRIPTURE

- John 4:37 (NKJV)

"For in this the saying is true: 'One sows and another reaps.'"

5 LOOK AGAIN AT THE PROCESS

- Harvest doesn't begin at harvest.
- Before anyone reaps, someone sowed. Someone labored. Someone prayed.
- You may be harvesting something someone else planted.
- Don't get discouraged when you don't see the full result of your labor.
- God wastes no faithful seed.

SCRIPTURE

- John 4:38 (NKJV)

"I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labors."

KEY TRUTH:

The harvest isn't coming. Jesus says the harvest is already here.

Sometimes what needs to change isn't the field, the people, or the season. It's how we see it. Jesus challenges us to lift our eyes, look again, and recognize what God has already positioned before us.

Notes

WEEKLY CHALLENGE

LOOK AGAIN.

This week, intentionally identify:

- One OPPORTUNITY you've been postponing.
- One way GOD CAN USE YOU.
- One PROCESS where you need to remain faithful.

Then take one intentional step toward the harvest.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord, lift my eyes and help me see what You see. Give me discernment to recognize the timing, the people, and the opportunities You have already placed before me. Help me be willing to do my part, and keep me faithful in the process. Use my life to sow, serve, and reap for Your Kingdom. In Jesus' name, Amen.
