WE

Hi, WOGFC Family!

As we move through the final week of August, we pause with gratitude for all God has done while keeping our hearts open to what He is still revealing. Every season gives us another opportunity to know His voice, strengthen our relationship with Him, and become more confident in following His direction. Even when circumstances shift or life becomes noisy, what God has spoken remains secure.

As a church family, let's finish this month connected, prayerful, and attentive to His presence. Make room to hear Him. Trust what He has shown you. Walk confidently in what He has spoken. God has been faithful to this house, and He continues to lead us forward with purpose. Stay connected. Stay obedient. Stay faithful. What God revealed cannot be canceled.

This Week's Message

You Can't Cancel What God Revealed

Scripture Reference: Revelation 1:1-9 (KJV)

Pastor Mitch delivered a powerful message reminding us that revelation is rooted in relationship. When you know God, spend time with Him, walk with Him, and learn His voice, you can trust what He reveals to you.

Through the experience of John, we were reminded that our surroundings do not determine our ability to hear from God. John found himself isolated on the island of Patmos, but what appeared to be a place of separation became the very place where God revealed something greater.

This message has 3 key points:

1. Revelation Comes Through Relationship
2. Isolation Can Become a Place of Revelation
3. What God Reveals Comes With a Blessing and a Promise

This week, Stay connected. Stay obedient. Stay faithful. You can't cancel what God revealed! Your circumstances may change. The noise around you may change. Your environment may change. But none of it can separate you from the love of God.

Sermon notes and study guide were sent out on Monday!
