

"I'm a new believer, and I want to learn how to share what I've found."

– "R" from Bucknell, a first year student

Every Thursday at noon I gather with six or seven first year men at Bucknell, with the goal of helping them learn to disciple each other and grow in their knowledge of God's Word. We recently started studying Titus, and my hope was to give them a vision to be men of character, that they would be above reproach, hold firm to the Word and teach others to do the same.

One of the young men just recently started coming to our group, and in hearing that we are to not only be men who hold firm, but to then teach others, he shared with us that he recently came to Christ. After sharing with us his new found faith, he then kept going by saying that he wanted to learn to share what he has found in Christ!

Pray for "R" as he matures and learns how to bring the Word to others on campus!

Women's Conference

It was a sold out crowd of women at last month's DiscipleMakers Women's Conference. The ladies heard teaching from the book of Exodus and unfolded before them was the truth that Moses pointed to a better intercessor, Jesus, and that the Lord is consistently "merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness" (Exodus 34:6). Want to check out the teaching from the week? Go to dm.org/teaching.

One of the highlights for Heather was getting to lead a small group of ladies from Susquehanna University and seeing the students step away from the weekend wanting to keep learning from God's Word, to prioritize what God values, and to go to the Lord when wrestling with sin, believing He is slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

DiscipleMakers = Best Christian Workplace

Another exciting update in DiscipleMakers is we were rated by Best Christian Workplaces to be the actual best place to work that they poll! This is one of the reasons why we love working with DiscipleMakers. By God's grace we have scored highly on this assessment over the years (since 2015), but this is the first year that our staff reported such positive results to earn us the top spot (out of 168 Christian workplaces)! Only by the grace of God! The Called to Flourish Podcast interviewed the DiscipleMakers President, Peter Krol, and Vice President, Tom Hallman to hear how DiscipleMakers has worked to improve to this point. You can read the highlights of the interview at <https://workplaces.org/podcast/ask-for-feedback-before-the-decision-how-disciplemakers-built-a-100th-percentile-ministry-culture>.

How You Can Be Praying

- Pray for "R" as he learns to share his faith on campus and at home.
- Praise God for the growth in a healthy and encouraging work culture at DiscipleMakers!
- Pray for DiscipleMakers upcoming 2 weeks of an end of the year conference, FOCUS. Week 1 for about half our campuses is May 10th - May 15th and week 2 for the remaining campuses is May 17th - May 22nd. It tends to be a great week of focused growth and study of the Word before they are launched into their summers.

Thank you for praying, and please continue to pray. We cannot do this without your partnership in the Gospel!
