

Ice Breaker

1. What were some of your big takeaways from this week's CAPS Journal readings?
2. How is your memory work? Can you say your verses from this week?

Central Idea / Adjust

3. We are called to consider trials an occasion for joy because testing produces perseverance and maturity (vv. 2-4). How does knowing this purpose change the way we respond to difficulties?
4. God invites us to ask for wisdom and reminds us that wealth is temporary (vv. 5-11). What might a current test reveal about where you look for security and direction?
5. Blessing is promised to those who persevere under trial (v. 12). How does God's promise help us remain faithful when giving up or giving in seems easier?
6. Our own desires can lead to temptation and sin (vv. 13-15). How can recognizing this process help us resist temptation before it takes deeper root?
7. Every good and perfect gift comes from God (vv. 16-18). How does trusting God's goodness help us resist the temptation to seek satisfaction outside his will?
8. Being quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger helps us humbly receive God's Word (vv. 19-21). What attitudes or distractions make it difficult for you to receive what God is saying?
9. Hearing the Word without obeying it is like looking in a mirror and then forgetting what we saw (vv. 22-25). How can meditating on Scripture help us move from simply knowing its truth to practicing it?
10. Lived-out faith shows itself through our speech, care for vulnerable people, and personal purity (vv. 26-27). As God proves and strengthens your faith, what specific step of obedience is his Word calling you to take this week?

Pray

11. How do you pray these verses back to God?
