

Matthew 11:20-30

"A Contrast of Judgement & Rest

Jesus the Righteous Judge (20-24)

Jesus the Son of the Father (25-27)

Jesus the Gracious Lord (28-30)

1. How does Jesus' role as "judge" affect how you relate and understand who he is? How might it affect your approach to sharing the gospel with others? Is there an appropriate time to warn people? (Galatians 5:19-21; Hebrews 12:25-26)
2. Jesus is presented as the sovereign Son in Matthew 11, the very Son of God. How does this portrait of Jesus correct our culture's understanding of him? How does it correct and/or better inform you of your own understanding of him?
3. What do we mean when we say, "our only part in salvation is to receive by faith"? How is it reassuring to know Jesus not only paid the full price for our salvation, but also promises to come along side of us as we walk our our faith?
4. How does the idea of "rest" in Jesus give us peace? Read Hebrews chapter 4.
