Matthew 12:38-50
The "Greater" and the Family of God

Jesus the Greater Jonah & Solomon (38-42)

The Danger of Hearing and Rejecting (43-45)

The Family of God (46-50)

1. Matthew says that Jesus declared that he was "greater" than Jonah & Solomon. The Book of Hebrews declares that Jesus is greater than all of the Old Testament rites, locations, and OT heroes. Why does the New Testament regularly emphasize Jesus being "greater" than everyone before him? How does this speak to you personally, that is, realizing Jesus is greater than all our positions or possessions?
2. It's common to hear unbelievers refer to everyone as "God's children." How does Matthew 12:50 help us rightly define God's family?
3. What joy and benefits are there in knowing we belong to the family of God? How does being brothers and sisters in Christ change how we see each other in the church? How does it affect how we treat each other?
