BENEDICTINE SPIRITUALITY

WRITTEN TEXTS AND TRADITION: Liturgies are based on early church practices. The Bible writes about Passover, Eucharist, marriages, but it does not provide the rubrics and words for ongoing celebrations. What we should say and do is rooted in the traditions which we received with the Bible. These are as ancient as the written texts and shape us just as readily as the Bible does.

SOLO: AWAKE, O SLEEPER, RISE FROM DEATH

(words by F. Bland Tucker, 1895–1984; music by Max Miller, 1927–2013)

Awake, O sleeper, rise from death, and Christ shall give you light,
so learn his love—its length and breadth,
its fullness, depth, and height.

To us on earth he came to bring
from sin and fear release,
to give the Spirit's unity,
the very bond of peace.

There is one Body and one hope,
one Spirit and one call,
one Lord, one Faith, and one Baptism,
one Father of us all.

Then walk in love as Christ has loved,
who died that he might save;
with kind and gentle hearts forgive
as God in Christ forgave.

For us Christ lived, for us he died and conquered in the strife.
Awake, arise, go forth in faith,
and Christ shall give you life.
