Perspectives

Pastor Tom

Whoohoo! It has begun!

Whoohoo is not as good as “Hallelujah, but it translates pretty close. Whether we use Hallelujah or Whoohoo, let’s get excited. The renovation of the kitchen started Monday, April 13! I find myself going back there every 30 minutes or so just to see the progress. I never knew deconstruction could be so exciting and look so good.

From now until the project is finished, we will probably have the kitchen doors locked off to most of us. There is really not much in there now you can use...it has been emptied out. No ice, no sinks, no pans, no spoons...no nothin’! It is one big beautiful empty box. I get more and more excited with every new thing the construction workers do.

Now for the challenging work. We are trying to continue on with Wednesday Night Dinners. The menu will be basic, but delicious. The Wednesday Night dinners will rotate between hamburgers cooked on the grill, pizza from our two favorite pizza joints, and hotdogs cooked on the grill. Thanks to our Grill Master Todd and our every faithful Kitchen Krew! Again, it will be a basic menu until completion. We are hoping the project will be over on Wednesday, May 13. You know what our welcome back meal will be...oh yeah! Fried Chicken, mac-n-cheese, a great salad and a few other items filled with deliciousness.

This no Kitchen Zone will also affect our Celebrate Recovery Meal on Sunday evenings. They will likewise just work from a very basic menu for a few weeks. It will be worth it all when we get back to our full schedule!

Until then, see you Sunday, good Lord willing!

Pastor Tom

Migrant Kits for Luz Y Verdad Migrant Camp Ministry

Luz Y Verdad church reaches out to migrant camps in St. Helena with gospel presentations, meals, visits and gifts. Women on Mission requests your help to provide items to be given to the workers and their families. Special sized bags with a list of items will be available to pick up at the sanctuary doors again next Sunday, and also outside the church office. Items needed are: toothpaste, bar of soap, washcloth, bath towel (no hand towels), comb. (No sample sizes please.) All items should be brought to the church by May 3rd. Your help is greatly appreciated.
