

Faith Baptist Newsletter – Oct 25, 2026

As we finish October, thank you for helping make Missions Month a special time at Faith Baptist! Next Sunday is Missions Sunday, when we'll receive our financial commitments for missions and a special missions offering. Prayerfully consider how God would have you give—and remember to turn your clocks back one hour next weekend! Be sure to visit our new Next Steps table in the lobby, where you'll find help with salvation, baptism, membership, growing in faith, and finding a place to serve. This Monday will be the final Knit, Crochet & Pray meeting unless someone steps forward to lead the group. We are deeply grateful to Janet Cox for her tireless leadership and the love she has poured into this wonderful group of ladies. Their missions sale will still take place November 15 and 22. Our Ladies of Faith are also holding a Bake Sale for Missions in the gym—pick up some goodies today and help share the Gospel around the world! - Pastor Burdine

Missionary Note: Rick & Fran Schuessler - Bahamas

On August 1-8 we had the privilege to lead a team from Park Valley Church in Haymarket, VA (to El Salvador). What a week watching God continue to bless the efforts of these awesome servants of the Savior. It would take pages of a large book to share all the "god" stories of the week. The local church, Ebenezer Church, has the main church plus 3 campuses in the bush of the country. We were able to serve in each area of the ministry. 600 medical care connections and 65 new believers!!!
