COURSE CORRECTIONS

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Before this message, what did the word “repentance” mean to you — and has your understanding of it shifted at all?
2. What’s the most memorable — or most dramatic — way someone has ever tried to get your attention about something important?
3. The sermon compared repentance to a pilot constantly course-correcting on the way home. What does that kind of ongoing, daily turning look like in your life practically?
4. The fig tree got one more year before getting cut down. What’s something in your house or life that has been on its “last chance” for way too long?
5. What do you think it looks like to be so close to the things of God that you stop actually seeing God?
6. What’s something that was a little unpleasant but ultimately turned out to be exactly what you needed?
7. The message said “nobody ever drifted into a great life.” What area of your life do you think is most vulnerable to drift right now?
8. What’s an area of your life that you’re pretty sure you’ve successfully kept hidden from everyone, including maybe yourself?
9. Irenaeus wrote, “The glory of God is man fully alive.” What do you think it looks like for you personally to be fully alive?
10. On a scale of “actively course correcting” to “I haven’t checked the instrument panel in months,” where would you say you are right now?
