DIRTY TRUTH ABOUT LOVE PART 4

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Why do you think Jesus said it's impossible that offenses won't come?
2. What's the smallest thing that has ever offended you way more than it should have?
3. How does understanding that "our struggle is not against flesh and blood" change how you view conflict?
4. On a scale of 1-10, how dramatic are you when you feel wronged?
5. What does it practically look like to "prepare for offenses" instead of being shocked by them?
6. Have you ever replayed a conversation 37 times and gotten more offended each time?
7. What makes confrontation so uncomfortable for most people?
8. Have you ever realized later that what offended you wasn't actually what was said, but how you felt?
9. How does bitterness take root according to Hebrews 12:15? What are early warning signs?
10. If faith the size of a mustard seed can uproot a tree, what might it uproot in your heart?
