FAMILY FEATURE PART 3

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Hezekiah was described as someone who trusted God and held fast to Him — and the Lord was with him wherever he went. What does that kind of consistent trust actually look like in daily life?
2. What's the most intimidating bluff someone has ever pulled on you that turned out to be nothing?
3. How do you hold onto your faith when voices around you are telling you not to?
4. Name someone in your life who is absolutely impossible to deal with but somehow always right.
5. What does it look like practically to push on when everything in you wants to give up?
6. The sermon said prayer shouldn't be a last resort. Be honest — what are the things you usually try before you pray?
7. Do you genuinely believe prayer changes things? Has there been a moment in your life that proved it?
8. "If God is for us, who can be against us?" — great verse. Who in your life makes you need to quote it most often?
9. What's a story from your own life where you saw God show up in a way that couldn't be explained?
10. On a scale of "I prayed about it first" to "I tried everything else and prayer is my Hail Mary," where do you usually land?
