FAMILY FEATURE PART 4

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Has there been a moment in your life where you had to choose between a safe path and a God-sized one? What did you choose?
2. Has anyone in your family ever given you a nickname that was meant as an insult but you kind of owned it anyway?
3. "It's going to cost you to say yes." What's the most expensive yes you've ever said — in time, money, or sanity?
4. What does it look like to stay faithful when your circumstances feel like a step backward instead of forward?
5. If your life had a Wonka-style golden ticket moment, what door would it open?
6. What does trust look like in a season where you can't see what God is doing?
7. What's the most unglamorous situation you've ever had to just keep showing up for?
8. Joseph found favor with God and people in every place he was planted. What do you think the connection is between faithfulness and favor?
9. God gave Joseph favor with the prison warden. What's the most unlikely person who has ever gone out of their way to help you?
10. What's a God-sized vision you're still waiting to see come to life — and what's one step of faithfulness you could take toward it this week?
