

Table Talk

SURRENDERING SHADOWS PART 3

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Has there ever been a time you worked really hard to help someone and felt unappreciated or overlooked? What was that like?
2. Be honest – have you ever done something nice for someone and then mentally kept score?
3. What's the difference between serving because you want to and serving because you feel like you have to?
4. What's the most dramatic thing you've ever done to try to get someone to notice how hard you were working?
5. Martha got so busy taking care of Jesus that she missed actually being with Jesus. Has that ever happened to you in any area of life?
6. If Martha had a group chat, what do you think her first message would have been?
7. Why do you think it's hard for helpers and servers to ask for help themselves?
8. What's the most ridiculous thing you've ever felt competitive about when helping someone?
9. Jesus said "one thing is necessary." What do you think that one thing is for you right now?
10. Have you ever volunteered for something and immediately regretted it? What happened?