Getting-to-know-you questions:

For a new group:

Who was your favorite teacher and why?

For an established group:

If you could pass one piece of wisdom on to a fellow believer, what would it be?

From the Message:

- 1) Who has taught you spiritually that has not been in an official role as teacher?
- 2) What are the benefits to men teaching men, women teaching women? What are the benefits of learning from the opposite gender?
- 3) Discuss why obedience to God is both required and beneficial.
- 4) How is not being willing to teach other believers unloving on our part?
- 5) What characteristic of God most amazes you?
- 6) Discuss ways that you can teach other believers without being in a formal learning setting?
- 7) How are you obeying Jesus' command to teach others to obey His commands?

Discuss from Scripture:

- 1) Discuss why Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refused to bow down to the statue.
- 2) Have you experienced a situation where your obedience to Christ had consequences in the way you were treated?
- 3) What impact did their obedience have on the King and the others who witnessed their deliverance?
- 4) What encouragement do you take from this account in relation to obedience to God?

Discuss from the video:

- 1) Do you view obedience to God as a beautiful privilege? Why or Why not?
- 2) How is genuine obedience a sign of genuine faith in and love for God?
- 3) How does the fact that God is a commander who gives imperatives affect your view of Him?
- 4) Which of these five attitudes best describes your approach to obeying God? Dismissive, Decision, Duty, Discipline, or Delight?
- 5) How can you begin to change your attitude (if necessary) towards obedience?
