Call to Worship

Please repeat each line spoken in the Call to Worship and Prayer of Confession

We come this morning to worship God together, loving one another in our differences.
Acknowledging we are one body through Christ,
we come to worship the Lord with glad hearts.

We come this morning to worship God together,

Acknowledging we are one body through Christ,
we come to worship the Lord with glad hearts.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Lord we confess together
we put up barriers,
when you have torn the veil
Give us hearts that welcome
As your Spirit has welcomed us.

Lord we confess together
we put up barriers,
when you have torn the veil
Give us hearts that welcome
As your Spirit has welcomed us.

Assurance of Pardon

Who is in a position to condemn?
Only Christ, and Christ died for us, Christ rose for us,
Christ reigns in power for us, Christ prays for us.
Anyone in Christ is a new creation:
the past is gone; the new has come.
In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven! Amen!

452 Open the Eyes of My Heart

O - pen the eyes of my heart, Lord. O - pen the eyes of my heart;

I want to see you; I want to see you;

to see you high and lift - ed up, shin - ing in the light of your glo - ry. Pour out your pow - er and love as we sing "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly."

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, I want to see you.

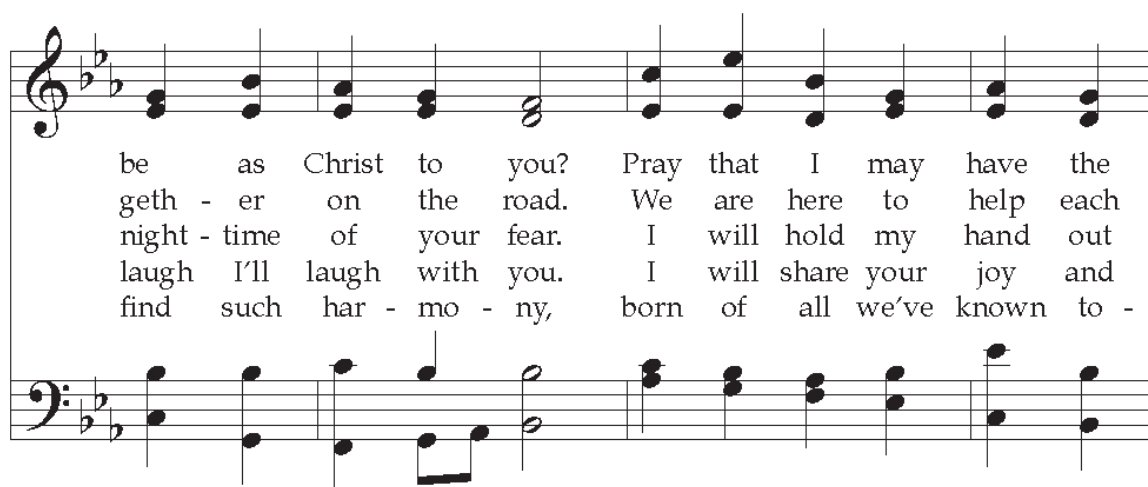

The initial petition of this song is based on the language of Ephesians 1:18, while the second part draws on the account of Isaiah's vision in Isaiah 6:1-5. That event, in turn, is the basis of the threefold Sanctus that has become a traditional element in Christian worship.

 to you, speak the peace you long to hear.
 sor - row till we've seen this jour - ney through.
 geth - er of Christ's love and ag - o - ny.
 (repeat stanza 1)

The opening and closing stanza expresses the essence of this folk-style song about the mutuality of servant ministry: those who serve must also be willing to be served. This is what Christ intended when he commanded the disciples to "wash one another's feet" (John 13:14).
