RESPONSIVE READING

GOD THE CREATOR

Genesis 1:1-5, 2:4-7; Psalm 33:6-9

Leader: In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Congregation: Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness covered the surface of the watery depths, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.

Leader: Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. Congregation: Before a word is on my tongue, you know all about it, Lord.

Leader: God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." There was an evening, and there was a morning: one day.

Congregation: These are the records of the heavens and the earth, concerning their creation. At the time that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens,

Leader: no shrub of the field had yet grown on the land, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the Lord God had not made it rain on the land, and there was no man to work the ground.

Congregation: But mist would come up from the earth and water all the ground.

Leader: 7 Then the Lord God formed the man out of the dust from the ground and breathed the breath of life into his nostrils, and the man became a living being.

Congregation: 6 The heavens were made by the word of the Lord, and all the stars, by the breath of his mouth.

Leader: He gathers the water of the sea into a heap; he puts the depths into storehouses.

Congregation: Let the whole earth fear the Lord; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him

ALL: For he spoke, and it came into being he commanded, and it came into existence.
