PASTOR'S CORNER

The Green Paraments remind us that we are now in "ordinary" time. There are no festivals to break in our same Sunday by Sunday liturgy. Ho hum, same old, same old. And yet is that not where most of our lives are lived? Is that not where God intrudes to remind us of the beauty of His graces for us day to day?

Cole Riley writes "Wonder includes the capacity to be in awe of humanity, even your own. It allows us to jettison the dangerous belief that things worthy of wonder can only be located on nature hikes and scenic overlooks. This can distract us from the beauty flowing through us daily. For every second that our organs and bones sustain us is a miracle...To be able to marvel at the face of our neighbor with the same awe that we have for the mountaintop, the sunlight refracting - This manner of vision is what will keep us from destroying each other."

Join us in worship in "ordinary" time, and eat and drink bread and wine "given and shed for you."

A NOTE OF THANKS

Dear Friends at Trinity,

Thank you so much for observing my 45th Anniversary of Ordination at the worship services on June 11th and 12th.

I greatly appreciate the certificate of the occasion, and the card with the generous gift enclosed.

I am deeply grateful for your kindness and for your high regard for ordained servants of the church such as myself.

Thank you very much.

Peace,

Pastor Riethmiller

Art At Trinity

In the small side narthex by the planter are several items of interest, old and more recent. On your right as you enter from the outside glass door is a photograph of the chancel by Jonathan Nakles Photography.

On the wall by the sacristy is a bronze plaque with a door. Open the door and you will find "Trinity Beautiful Memorial Furniture" contributors from 1965.

On the wall by the planter is a photograph of Bishop Donald McCoid when he was installed as Bishop of S.W. PA Synod in 1987.

The bronze statue of "Christ Washing the Feet of Peter" was sculpted by Jan Barone, a local artist. The congregation voted this art piece #1 in July 2003. She then gave us another sculpture entitled "Mother and Child" which is now on display in the lounge. Please take some time to enjoy and study Trinity's art.
