Growing in Faith...Reaching out in Love...Making Disciples

Pastor's Corner

We have been focusing on the gift and sacrament of Baptism this year in our Catechism classes. Recently, as we learned about the baptismal liturgy and how it ties into the season of Lent, I asked the youth if they know what "Lent" means. A brief survey beyond the classroom into the sanctuary that morning helped me discover that, in fact, nearly no one does!

The word "Lent" does not allude to the act of borrowing or loaning. Rather, it comes from the Old English word, "Lenct," from which the word length derives. The word Lent, then, is an allusion to the lengthening days of Spring all around us. It is intentional in the rhythm of the church year to tie the season of Lent to the liminal space between Winter and Spring... that time of mud and the slow wakening of the earth.

While, yes, Lent is a season of fasting, repentance, self-examination, acts of love and service and sacrificial giving... it is also a time to observe the increase in daylight, the work of bulbs underground, the return of song birds to our yards!

Do not lose heart, dear ones. No matter the tumultuous changes you face in your life. No matter the devils that have plagued your story. Easter is coming! A time for all of us to rejoice in the promises laid over us in baptism, we hold fast to these lengthening days.

In Christ,

Pastor Jess

Sew Powerful Purses

The cold may have deterred us in January, but we're back on Saturday, March 14 from 9am until 5pm! A dedicated group of women have worked for months to prepare, cut, and back the pieces for these purses, which will be sent overseas to help young girls remain in school when their menstrual cycles begin.

Don't sew? Come help set up the kits for our seamstresses! Can't make it? There are kits prepared for you to sew at home!

A Note of Thanks

A special thanks to Pastor Jess and Pastor Jason for your guidance and prayers during my recent surgery. A special thanks also to the "angels" of our Meal Ministry for their visits and caring ways, providing delicious meals to help in my recovery.

May God bless you all,
