2 Chronicles 7:1-3, 14

THE PRESENCE AND FEAR OF GOD AMONG HIS CHURCH; HUMILITY, PRAYER, & REPENTANCE

1 As soon as Solomon finished his prayer, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the temple. 2 And the priests could not enter the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord filled the Lord's house. 3 When all the people of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of the Lord on the temple, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement and worshiped and gave thanks to the Lord, saying, "For He is good, for His steadfast love endures forever."

14 If My people who are called by My name humble themselves, and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land.

Sunday

v. 1: Pray for an ever increasing awareness of God's glory within your church.

Monday

v. 2: Pray that this increasing awareness of God's presence and glory would become more important than the plans and programs of your church.

Tuesday

v. 3: Pray that God's goodness and steadfast love would be poured out as your church responds rightly to His presence and glory.

Wednesday

v. 14: This right response to God begins with humility. Pray for the grace to truly humble yourselves before God.

Thursday

v. 14: Pray for the grace to faithfully seek God's face, knowing that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

Friday

v. 14: Pray that the Spirit of God will convict each church member of the areas in their thoughts and actions that are sinful. Ask God to help your church view private and corporate sin the way He does so that you will turn from wickedness.

Saturday

v. 14: Pray that God will hear, forgive, and heal.

2 Kings 18:3-7

IDOLATRY, TRUST, OBEDIENCE, GOD'S BLESSING

3 And Hezekiah did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, according to all that David his father had done. 4 He removed the high places and broke the pillars and cut down the Asherah. And he broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the people of Israel had made offerings to it (it was called Nehushtan). 5 He trusted in the Lord, the God of Israel, so that there was none like him among all the kings of Judah after him, nor among those who were before him. 6 For he held fast to the Lord. He did not depart from following Him, but kept the commandments that the Lord commanded Moses. 7 And the Lord was with him; wherever he went out, he prospered.

v. 3: Pray that your church will gain a clearer understanding of what is “right in the eyes of the Lord.”

Tuesday

v. 4: Ask God to reveal the idols in your own heart and within your church, recognizing that even God's blessings from the past can hinder us from serving Him rightly today.

Wednesday

v. 5: Ask God to cultivate a greater trust in Him, both individually and corporately.

Thursday

v. 5-6: Pray that your church would have a reputation for trusting in God, holding fast to Him, and not departing from following Him.

Friday

v. 6: Pray for the grace to keep God's commandments with your whole heart, doing so out of love for Him, not from a false sense of self-righteousness.

Saturday

v. 7: Pray that God will prosper you and your church as you place your trust in Him, not for your own sake, but as a testimony to His faithfulness.

Luke 4:16–21

THE WORK OF GOD DURING SEASONS OF REVIVAL

16 And [Jesus] came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read. 17 And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written, 18 “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.” 20 And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. 21 And he began to say to them, “Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

v. 18: Pray that during the upcoming conference, the poor in spirit will be refreshed as good news is proclaimed to them. Pray that pride will not blind the poor from seeing their spiritual poverty.

Tuesday

v. 18: Pray that those in your church who are held captive to wrong ways of thinking and sinful habits will experience freedom as the Spirit of God works among your church in the coming days.

Wednesday

v. 18: Ask God to open the spiritual eyes of those who are blind to His will and ways. Pray that they will see Him for who He truly is and respond rightly.

Thursday

v. 18: For those who are oppressed by the world system, the sinful desires of the flesh, and the schemes of the devil, pray that they will know and deeply experience the freedom that comes from Jesus being their Lord.

Friday

v. 19: As times of revival are often preceded by difficult seasons that lead to repentance, pray that everyone in your church will know the reality of the Lord’s favor as He heals and restores.

BEING A LOVING CHURCH

31 “When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. 32 Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. 34 Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. 35 For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, 36 I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.’

40 “And the King will answer them, ‘Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.’”

Monday

v. 34: Begin by praising the Father for the inestimable gift of His kingdom that we will inherit, prepared for us before the foundation of the world!

Tuesday

v. 35: As kingdom heirs, our love for each other should look like His love for us. Ask God to increase your awareness of and sensitivity to the physical needs of those around you. With this increased awareness, pray for a heart to meet these needs, realizing that serving our fellow heirs is serving our King.

Wednesday

v. 35: When was the last time you welcomed a stranger into your church or into your home? Ask God to give you His heart of compassion. Pray that your eyes will be opened to see the “strangers” that He is calling you to welcome in His name.

Thursday

v. 36: We don’t just welcome others in; we go to them when they are destitute and in need. Pray that God would use your church to meet the relational needs of those who are fellow heirs but unable to join in your fellowship.

Friday

v. 40: The “sheep” will be surprised that they had loved their King so well. Ask God to remind you often that by loving your fellow believers in need, you are actually loving Jesus! Pray that He will show you daily how to better love Him by loving others.

BLESSING FOR THE DAYS AHEAD

9 From the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; 11 being strengthened with all power, according to His glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy; 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. 13 He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Sunday

v. 9: Ask God to fill you with the knowledge of His will, as individuals, as families, and as a church body. Pray for the spiritual wisdom and understanding to discern what He wants for each of you as we will soon gather to seek Him during the conference.

Monday

v. 10: Is it truly your heart's desire to fully please God? Ask Him to show you any ways that you are not walking in a manner worthy of Him. Pray that He would reveal any ways that your church may not be pleasing Him.

Tuesday

v. 10: Pray that every individual in your church would bear much fruit and grow in the knowledge of God.

Wednesday

v. 11: Pray that your church's power would come exclusively from our Lord's glorious might and not your own plans, efforts, or abilities.

Thursday

v. 12: Thank God for the astonishing gift of qualifying you to share in the inheritance of His kingdom!

Friday

v. 13: Pray that your church would see many in your community rescued from the domain of darkness and transferred to Jesus' kingdom.

Sunday

v. 14: Ask God to give you and your congregation great boldness in proclaiming the redemption and forgiveness of sins made available to us through faith in Jesus.

Matthew 5:2

THE ONES WHO ARE BLESSED BY GOD

2 And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: 3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. 5 Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. 6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. 7 Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. 8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. 9 Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. 10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”

Monday

v. 3: Pray that God would encounter the poor in spirit in a powerful way during the conference. Pray that they would come to know what it means to be kingdom citizens.

Tuesday

v. 4: Pray that God would comfort those who are mourning with His compassion, mercy, and truth.

Wednesday

v. 5: Pray that God would find a humble people who gather to seek Him during the conference.

Thursday

v. 6: Pray for an increased hunger and thirst for righteousness within your church. Ask the Father to satisfy this longing with more of Himself.

Friday

v. 7: Pray that God’s mercy would find people right where they are. Pray that your church would be a people who shares God’s mercy with the community.

Saturday

v. 8: Pray that God would purify many hearts within your congregation as they look to Him this next week.

Sunday

v. 9: Pray for peace to come where there is relationship tension between fellow church members and toward those outside the church.

v. 10: Pray that God would support, sustain, and strengthen those who are misunderstood by the world as they seek to live a revived life.
