

WHEN GOD MOVES

A Journey of Spiritual Renewal

21 DAYS OF PRAYER

November 1–21, 2026

Preparing for the Lord's Supper

November 22, 2026

DAY 1 | Sunday, November 1, 2026

Our Desperate Need for Mercy

Scripture: Psalm 51:1–2

DEVOTIONAL

David begins his prayer by appealing not to his own goodness, but to God's steadfast love and abundant mercy. He knows that his sin cannot be erased by excuses, religious activity, or personal effort. Only the Lord can blot out his transgressions and wash him clean. We often approach God with explanations for our failures or promises to do better. Yet genuine renewal begins when we acknowledge how desperately we need His grace. Because of Jesus Christ, forgiveness is not merely a distant hope; it is available to all who turn to Him in repentance and faith. As we begin these 21 days, let us come before God with honest hearts and a renewed awareness of His mercy.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, I need Your mercy more than I realize. Expose my sin, humble my heart, and help me rest in the forgiveness You provide through Jesus Christ.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Am I approaching God with humble dependence on His mercy, or am I relying on my own goodness?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Begin these 21 days with a quiet time of confession. Read Psalm 51:1–2 slowly and thank God specifically for His mercy.

DAY 2 | Monday, November 2, 2026

Facing the Reality of Sin

Scripture: Psalm 51:3–4

DEVOTIONAL

David does not hide behind vague language. He acknowledges his transgressions and recognizes that his sin is always before him. David is not minimizing the consequences of his sins for others, but rather emphasizing that every sin is ultimately an offense against the Lord. Sin is not simply a mistake or a failure to meet our own standards; it is rebellion against the holy God who made us. We cannot experience spiritual renewal while defending what God calls sin. Honest confession means agreeing with God's assessment rather than shifting blame or softening the truth. The good news is that the Lord receives repentant sinners through Jesus Christ. His grace invites us to stop hiding and come into the light.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord, help me see my sin as You see it. Reveal the ways I have excused or minimized my disobedience, and give me a humble heart that is quick to confess rather than justify my actions. Thank You for Your mercy and the forgiveness I have through Jesus Christ.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Where have I excused, minimized, or blamed someone else for my sin?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Name one specific sin before God without making excuses. Confess it plainly and ask Him to help you turn from it.

DAY 3 | Tuesday, November 3, 2026

The Truth About Our Hearts

Scripture: Psalm 51:5–6

DEVOTIONAL

David's confession reaches deeper than individual acts of wrongdoing. He recognizes that sin is a problem of the heart. We may focus on outward behavior because it is what other people can see, but God knows the desires and motives beneath our actions. In 1 Samuel 16:7, the Lord makes it clear that people look at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart. David also acknowledges that God delights in truth in the inward being. Spiritual renewal, therefore, cannot be reduced to appearing more religious. We need God to search us honestly and teach us to love what is true. The Lord is not interested merely in a polished image; He calls us to integrity before Him.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, search my heart and reveal motives I have overlooked. Give me honesty before You and a growing love for truth.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Is there a difference between the spiritual image I present and what is actually happening in my heart?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Ask God to examine one area of your motives today. Write down what He brings to mind and respond honestly.

DAY 4 | Wednesday, November 4, 2026

The Cleansing Only God Can Give

Scripture: Psalm 51:7–9

DEVOTIONAL

It's one thing to admit our sin, but spiritual renewal happens when we press into God's forgiveness and cleansing. David pleads for the Lord to wash him and make him clean. He understands that guilt cannot be removed through self-improvement or simply trying to forget the past. He needs God to do what he cannot do for himself. We need the same cleansing. The blood of Jesus Christ provides the forgiveness and purity we could never achieve on our own. When we confess our sins, we can trust God's promise to forgive rather than remain trapped in shame. A renewed heart does not deny the seriousness of sin; it rejoices in the greater sufficiency of God's grace.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord, thank You that forgiveness and cleansing are possible through Jesus Christ. Help me confess honestly and rest in Your promise rather than cling to guilt.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Have I confessed my sin but continued to live as though God's forgiveness were insufficient?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Set aside a few quiet moments today to confess any sin that is weighing on your heart. Read 1 John 1:9 and thank God for His promise to forgive and cleanse. Rather than continuing to dwell on your guilt, choose to rest in the forgiveness Christ has provided.

DAY 5 | Thursday, November 5, 2026

Create in Me a Clean Heart

Scripture: Psalm 51:10–12

DEVOTIONAL

David asks God to create in him a clean heart and renew a right spirit within him. He understands that the deepest change he needs cannot be manufactured by determination alone. His prayer is not simply, 'Help me behave better,' but 'Change me from the inside out.' Sin disrupts fellowship with God and robs us of the joy of His salvation. David longs for restored joy and a willing spirit that responds to the Lord. We, too, may become comfortable with outward religious habits while our hearts grow cold. Spiritual renewal is God's gracious work in us, producing fresh desires to trust, worship, and obey Him. We should ask boldly for that inward work.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord, create in me a clean heart. Restore the joy of Your salvation and renew my willingness to follow You.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Where has my relationship with God become routine rather than joyful and wholehearted?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Pray Psalm 51:10–12 in your own words. Identify one habit that has dulled your affection for Christ and take a step to change it.

DAY 6 | Friday, November 6, 2026

A Restored Heart That Testifies

Scripture: Psalm 51:13–15

DEVOTIONAL

When David anticipates restoration, he looks beyond his own relief. He desires to teach others God's ways so that sinners might return to the Lord. A heart that has experienced mercy has a testimony worth sharing. David also asks God to open his lips so that his mouth may declare divine praise. Forgiveness should never leave us self-absorbed; it should move us toward worship and witness. We do not have to pretend that we have always been faithful. Instead, we can speak humbly of a faithful Savior who receives repentant people. Spiritual renewal becomes visible when gratitude for grace changes what we say and how we serve those around us.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, thank You for restoring sinners through Your grace. Open my lips to praise You and give me opportunities to point others to Christ.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Does gratitude for God's forgiveness lead me to worship and speak of His goodness?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Share with one person today a specific way God has shown you mercy or helped you grow.

DAY 7 | Saturday, November 7, 2026

The Sacrifice God Desires

Scripture: Psalm 51:16–19

DEVOTIONAL

As David concludes his prayer, he reminds us that God desires more than outward expressions of worship. Sacrifices had a place in Israel's worship, but no ritual could substitute for genuine repentance. David says that the sacrifices of God are a broken spirit and a broken and contrite heart. The Lord welcomes those who come before Him without pride or pretense. We may attend church, sing familiar songs, and participate in spiritual activities while resisting His work in our hearts. Spiritual renewal calls us to bring our whole selves before Him in humility. As we prepare to gather with God's people, let us remember that worship begins with surrender rather than performance.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord, deliver me from empty religious habits. Give me a humble, repentant heart that delights in worshiping You.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Am I bringing God a surrendered heart, or merely going through the motions of worship?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Before tomorrow's worship service, spend time confessing sin and asking God to prepare your heart to hear and obey His Word.

DAY 8 | Sunday, November 8, 2026

The True Vine and the Father’s Pruning

Scripture: John 15:1–2

DEVOTIONAL

Jesus identifies Himself as the true vine and His Father as the vinedresser. The picture reminds us that the Father is actively at work among those who profess to belong to Christ. He removes fruitless branches and prunes fruitful ones so they may bear more fruit. Pruning can be uncomfortable, but the Father's purpose is good. He is committed to producing spiritual growth in His people. We often ask God to change our circumstances while overlooking His desire to change us. Trials, correction, and conviction may expose habits that hinder our walk with Christ. Spiritual renewal requires trusting the Father's wise care, even when His work challenges our comfort.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, thank You for caring about my spiritual fruitfulness. Give me a teachable heart when You correct and shape me.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

What might God be exposing or removing in my life to produce greater spiritual fruit?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Ask God to show you one attitude or habit that needs pruning. Respond with a specific act of surrender.

DAY 9 | Monday, November 9, 2026

The Call to Abide

Scripture: John 15:3–4

DEVOTIONAL

Jesus tells His disciples to abide in Him. A branch cannot produce fruit independently of the vine; it must remain connected to its source of life. In the same way, believers cannot grow spiritually through self-reliance. Spiritual renewal is not simply about doing more for Jesus; it is about deepening our daily dependence upon Him. We may fill our schedules with worthwhile activities and still neglect time in His Word and prayer. Abiding means continuing in fellowship with Christ, receiving His truth, and relying on His strength. Fruitfulness flows from that relationship. Our first priority is not to appear productive but to remain close to the One who gives spiritual life.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord Jesus, forgive my self-reliance. Teach me to abide in You through Your Word, prayer, and daily trust.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Am I cultivating fellowship with Christ or substituting religious busyness for dependence on Him?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Set aside an uninterrupted period today to read John 15:1–11 and pray about what it means to abide in Christ.

DAY 10 | Tuesday, November 10, 2026

Apart from Me You Can Do Nothing

Scripture: John 15:5–6

DEVOTIONAL

Jesus makes a sweeping statement: apart from Him, we can do nothing. He is not denying that people can accomplish ordinary tasks; He is teaching that no one can produce spiritual fruit apart from Him. Every act of genuine Christian obedience depends on His life and power. Jesus also gives a sobering warning about failing to remain in Him. The fruitless branches are removed and face judgment. Therefore, the non-abiding, fruitless branches represent unbelievers. This warning should lead us to examine whether our profession of faith is accompanied by the fruit of a living relationship with Christ. True spiritual renewal begins not with confidence in ourselves but with genuine faith in Jesus and continued dependence upon Him.

PRAYER FOCUS

Jesus, keep me from trusting in religious activity or personal effort. Deepen my faith and produce lasting fruit in my life.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Does my life show evidence of a genuine, dependent relationship with Christ?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Read John 15:5–6 carefully. Ask God to reveal where you are relying on yourself instead of Christ.

DAY 11 | Wednesday, November 11, 2026

Abiding, Prayer, and Fruitfulness

Scripture: John 15:7–8

DEVOTIONAL

Jesus connects abiding in Him with His words abiding in us. As His truth shapes our desires, our prayers increasingly reflect what pleases the Father. This is not a promise that we can demand anything we want. Rather, it is an invitation to pray from a heart being formed by Christ's teaching. Jesus says the Father is glorified when His disciples bear much fruit and demonstrate that they belong to Him. Prayer and fruitfulness are therefore closely related. We need God's Word to guide what we ask, and we need His power to live what we believe. A renewed walk with Christ will show itself in Scripture-shaped prayers and lives that bring glory to God.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, let Christ's words dwell richly in me. Align my desires with Your will and make my life fruitful for Your glory.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

How much does Scripture shape the requests I bring before God?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Read John 15:7–8 and use its themes to guide a prayer for spiritual growth in yourself and your church.

DAY 12 | Thursday, November 12, 2026

Remaining in Christ’s Love

Scripture: John 15:9–10

DEVOTIONAL

Few truths are more remarkable than Jesus' declaration that He loves His disciples as the Father has loved Him. What an extraordinary assurance of Christ's love for those who belong to Him! Yet Jesus does not simply call us to appreciate His love; He commands us to abide in it. He then explains that obedience to His commandments is essential to remaining in the enjoyment of that love. Our obedience does not earn Christ's love, but it demonstrates our love for Him and deepens our fellowship with Him. Genuine spiritual renewal involves more than an emotional experience or a temporary commitment. It produces a growing desire to obey Christ because we love Him. The more deeply we understand His love for us, the more willingly we should surrender our lives to Him.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord Jesus, thank You for loving me with a love I could never earn or deserve. Help me to rest in the assurance of Your love while growing in my desire to obey Your Word. Reveal any area of my life where my actions are inconsistent with my profession of love for You.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Does my obedience to Christ reflect a genuine love for Him, or am I merely going through the motions of the Christian life?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Identify one command of Christ that you have struggled to obey consistently. Spend time reflecting on His love for you, and take one specific step of obedience today—not to earn His love, but as an expression of your love for Him.

DAY 13 | Friday, November 13, 2026

The Joy and Love of Christ

Scripture: John 15:11–13

DEVOTIONAL

Jesus makes it clear that His desire for His followers is not merely obedience, but a life filled with His joy. This joy is not dependent upon favorable circumstances but flows from an abiding relationship with Him. Jesus then connects this joy with His command to love one another as He has loved us. The standard for Christian love is not convenience or personal preference, but the sacrificial love of Christ Himself. In fact, Jesus points to the greatest expression of love—laying down one's life for another. Genuine spiritual renewal should produce both a deeper joy in Christ and a greater willingness to love others sacrificially. A heart that is being transformed by His love will increasingly reflect that love in everyday relationships.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord Jesus, thank You for the joy that comes from knowing and abiding in You. Help me to find my deepest satisfaction in You rather than in my circumstances. Fill my heart with Your love, and teach me to love others with the same selfless and sacrificial love You have demonstrated toward me.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Is my relationship with Christ producing a growing sense of joy and a greater willingness to love others sacrificially?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Look for an opportunity today to demonstrate Christlike love through a specific act of kindness, encouragement, or service. Choose something that requires you to put another person's needs ahead of your own.

DAY 14 | Saturday, November 14, 2026

Chosen to Bear Lasting Fruit

Scripture: John 15:14–17

DEVOTIONAL

As Jesus concludes this portion of His teaching, He reminds His disciples of the remarkable privilege of their relationship with Him. He calls them friends, revealing that He has made known to them the Father's purposes. He also reminds them that He has chosen and appointed them to bear lasting fruit. Their lives are to produce spiritual results that endure and bring glory to God. Notice that Jesus again connects fruitfulness with prayer and His command to love one another. Spiritual renewal is not simply about experiencing a closer relationship with Christ; it is about allowing that relationship to transform how we live, love, and serve. When we abide in Christ, our lives should increasingly reflect His character and accomplish His purposes.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord Jesus, thank You for the privilege of knowing You and being called Your friend. Help me to live with a greater awareness of Your purposes for my life. Produce lasting spiritual fruit through me, and teach me to love others faithfully as I seek to honor You.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Is my relationship with Christ producing lasting spiritual fruit that is evident in the way I live, love, and serve others?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Take a few moments to reflect on what God has been teaching you during this second week of prayer. Identify one area where you have grown in your dependence upon Christ and one area where you still need to grow. Thank Him for His work in your life and ask Him to continue producing lasting fruit through you.

DAY 15 | Sunday, November 15, 2026

Walking Worthy of Our Calling

Scripture: Ephesians 4:1–3

DEVOTIONAL

As we begin our final week of prayer, our focus shifts from personal spiritual renewal to the spiritual health of our church. In Ephesians 4, Paul urges believers to live in a manner worthy of their calling in Christ. He then identifies several qualities that should characterize our relationships with one another: humility, gentleness, patience, and love. Notice that Paul does not command us to create unity but to maintain the unity the Holy Spirit has already established. Genuine spiritual renewal should be evident not only in our personal walk with Christ but also in the way we treat fellow believers. A spiritually healthy church is not one without differences or disagreements, but one where believers consistently demonstrate Christlike character and pursue unity in love.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, help me to live in a manner worthy of my calling in Christ. Reveal any pride, impatience, or selfishness that may be hindering my relationships with others. Give me a humble and loving spirit, and help me do my part to preserve the unity of our church.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Do my attitudes, words, and actions contribute to the unity and spiritual health of our church?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Think of someone in our church with whom you may have experienced tension, disagreement, or misunderstanding. Ask God to examine your attitude toward that person, and consider one practical step you can take to demonstrate humility, patience, or love.

DAY 16 | Monday, November 16, 2026

United in One Lord

Scripture: Ephesians 4:4–6

DEVOTIONAL

In these verses, Paul reminds believers that Christian unity is rooted in what we share in Christ. He emphasizes this truth through the repeated use of the word one. We belong to one body, have been given one Spirit, and share one hope. We confess one Lord, one faith, and one baptism, and worship one God and Father. Our unity is not based upon having identical personalities, preferences, or backgrounds, but upon our common relationship with Jesus Christ. While differences among believers are inevitable, they should never overshadow the spiritual bond we share in Him. Genuine spiritual renewal helps us recognize that what unites us in Christ is far greater than the personal preferences that sometimes divide us.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, thank You for bringing us together as one body through Jesus Christ. Forgive me for the times I have allowed personal preferences or differences of opinion to become more important than the unity we share in Him. Help me to value my brothers and sisters in Christ and to pursue peace and unity within our church.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Am I allowing personal preferences, opinions, or differences to weaken my fellowship with other believers?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Reach out to someone in our church with whom you do not regularly interact. Offer a word of encouragement, express your appreciation for their place in our church family, or take time to pray for them by name.

DAY 17 | Tuesday, November 17, 2026

Grace Given to Every Believer

Scripture: Ephesians 4:7–10

DEVOTIONAL

After emphasizing the unity believers share in Christ, Paul now turns to the diversity of gifts within the church. Although we are one body, Christ has graciously given each believer a measure of grace for serving Him. This grace is not something we earn or deserve; it is a gift from our victorious, risen, and exalted Savior. Paul draws upon Psalm 68 to emphasize Christ's triumph and His authority to give gifts to His people. The important truth is that no believer has been overlooked. God has graciously equipped each of us to contribute to the ministry and spiritual health of His church. Genuine spiritual renewal should move us beyond simply attending church to actively serving Christ through the opportunities and abilities He has entrusted to us.

PRAYER FOCUS

Lord Jesus, thank You for the grace You have given me and for the privilege of serving in Your church. Forgive me for the times I have neglected opportunities to serve or underestimated how You can use me. Help me to recognize the gifts You have entrusted to me and to use them faithfully for Your glory and the good of others.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Am I faithfully using the gifts and opportunities Christ has given me to strengthen His church, or have I become content simply to attend?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Consider one specific way you can serve or encourage others through the ministry of Lakeside Baptist Church. If you are already serving, ask God to renew your joy and faithfulness in that ministry. If you are not currently serving, take a step toward finding a place where you can contribute.

DAY 18 | Wednesday, November 18, 2026

Equipped for Ministry

Scripture: Ephesians 4:11–12

DEVOTIONAL

In these verses, Paul explains that Christ has given gifted leaders to His church for a specific purpose: to equip believers for the work of ministry. The phrase "the shepherds and teachers" refers to the pastoral office. While pastors and other church leaders have important responsibilities, the work of ministry is not theirs alone. Every believer has a role in building up the body of Christ. God has designed the church to function as a body in which each member contributes to the spiritual growth and well-being of others. When we view ministry as something only a few people are called to do, we misunderstand God's design for His church. Genuine spiritual renewal should produce a willingness not only to be taught and encouraged but also to serve, disciple, and encourage others.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, thank You for the leaders You have placed in our church to teach, shepherd, and equip us for ministry. Help me to receive Your Word with a teachable heart and to recognize my responsibility to serve others. Give me a willing spirit and a greater desire to contribute to the spiritual growth of our church family.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Am I actively participating in the ministry of our church, or have I become content to let others carry the responsibility?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Take time today to pray for the pastors, teachers, and ministry leaders of Lakeside Baptist Church. Then consider one practical way you can help strengthen our church through serving, encouraging, or discipling another believer.

DAY 19 | Thursday, November 19, 2026

Growing Toward Spiritual Maturity

Scripture: Ephesians 4:13

DEVOTIONAL

Paul reminds us that God's purpose for the church extends beyond simply gathering believers together. His desire is for His people to grow toward spiritual maturity. This maturity is marked by unity in the faith, a deepening knowledge of Jesus Christ, and increasing Christlikeness. Notice that Paul describes this growth as something we pursue together. Spiritual maturity is not merely an individual goal; it is God's desire for the entire body of Christ. The standard is not how we compare with other believers, but how closely our lives reflect the character of Jesus. Genuine spiritual renewal should produce a growing hunger for God's Word, a deeper relationship with Christ, and a commitment to helping others mature in their faith.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, thank You for Your desire to see me grow in spiritual maturity. Forgive me for the times I have become complacent in my walk with You. Deepen my knowledge of Jesus Christ, strengthen my commitment to Your Word, and help me become more like Him. Use me to encourage the spiritual growth of others in our church family.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Am I growing in my knowledge of Christ and becoming more like Him, or have I become comfortable with where I am spiritually?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Set aside time today to examine your spiritual growth over the past year. Identify one area where God has helped you mature and one area where you still need to grow. Ask Him to help you take a specific step toward greater Christlikeness, and consider how you might encourage someone else in their spiritual growth.

Day 20 — Friday, November 20, 2026

Speaking the Truth in Love

Scripture: Ephesians 4:14–15

DEVOTIONAL

Paul warns that spiritual immaturity leaves believers vulnerable to false teaching and deception. Like a small boat tossed about by the waves, those who are not firmly grounded in God's Word can easily be influenced by teachings that contradict biblical truth.

The remedy is spiritual growth rooted in truth and expressed through love. Paul reminds us that truth and love must never be separated.

Truth without love can become harsh and divisive, while love without truth can compromise biblical convictions.

A spiritually healthy church must be firmly committed to God's Word while demonstrating the love of Christ in its relationships.

Genuine spiritual renewal produces believers who are growing in biblical discernment and learning to speak the truth with humility, grace, and love.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, help me to become firmly grounded in the truth of Your Word. Give me discernment to recognize false teaching and the courage to stand faithfully upon biblical truth. At the same time, guard my heart against pride and harshness. Teach me to speak the truth with humility and love so that my words strengthen others and honor Jesus Christ.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Am I growing in my understanding of biblical truth, and do my words reflect both faithfulness to God's Word and genuine love for others?

We are to practice and proclaim both truth and love. Is there one I tend to emphasize more than the other?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Spend time today reading Ephesians 4:14–15 and ask God to examine both your commitment to biblical truth and the way you communicate with others. Look for an opportunity to encourage someone with a truth from Scripture, expressing it with genuine kindness and love.

DAY 21 | Saturday, November 21, 2026

Every Member Doing Their Part

Scripture: Ephesians 4:16

DEVOTIONAL

As we conclude these 21 days of prayer, Paul reminds us that Jesus Christ is the source of the church's growth and spiritual health. Every believer is connected to the body of Christ, and each member has an important role in strengthening the church. When every part is functioning as God intends, the entire body grows and builds itself up in love. Throughout these three weeks, we have prayed for renewed hearts, a deeper walk with Christ, and a stronger, more unified church. But spiritual renewal is not meant to end with these 21 days. It should lead to a continuing commitment to Christ and His church. As we prepare to observe the Lord's Supper tomorrow, may we examine our hearts, celebrate the grace that unites us, and renew our commitment to serve Christ together.

PRAYER FOCUS

Father, thank You for the work You have done in my heart during these days of prayer. Continue to draw me closer to Christ and deepen my love for Your church. Reveal anything in my life that needs to be confessed or surrendered to You. Help me to serve faithfully, pursue unity, and contribute to the spiritual health of our church. As we gather around the Lord's Table tomorrow, prepare my heart to remember Christ's sacrifice with gratitude, humility, and renewed devotion.

PERSONAL REFLECTION

What has God revealed to me during these 21 days of prayer, and what specific changes do I need to make so that spiritual renewal becomes an ongoing reality in my life?

PRACTICAL NEXT STEP

Set aside some uninterrupted time today to reflect on these past three weeks. Read 1 Corinthians 11:23–29 and prayerfully examine your heart in preparation for tomorrow's observance of the Lord's Supper. Confess any known sin, consider whether there are relationships that need reconciliation, and thank God for the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Come tomorrow with a heart prepared for worship, remembrance, and renewed commitment to Him.
