¹ When CBC supports those whose primary ministry is planting and pastoring a local church, it is with the intention of gradually reducing our support for the pastor as the local church grows in its ability to provide for him. The rate at which we might decrease our financial support will depend on providential circumstances as the ministry takes root.

² Because we are committed to the entire relationship with the missionary or national pastor and not just providing living expenses, our support decisions will take into account the costs for our travel to the field and their travel to us, and possibly other known expenses for those we support such as ministry projects and education. This commitment is represented by the Global Partnership Project Fund and Travel and Training Fund.

* Represents partners supported through Exalting Christ Ministries International (ECMI).

 Represents support that will begin mid-year, whenever they are officially sent
