Dear Bible Student,

This book aims to teach you to transform your quiet time into in-depth Bible Study. If you haven't yet been to one of our Bible Study workshops where we give comprehensive instruction on this study method, check it out at www.thecruciblesfire.org/academy. If you are working through this on your own, the process is simple and can revolutionize how you study the Bible.

So, what is the 3x5 Bible Study Method, anyway? This method can be used with any book of the Bible and any passage. Simply choose 5 verses each day for 5 days over 5 weeks. That's 125 verses of in-depth Bible Study by the end of the journal. Doing Bible Study on 5 of 7 days each week allows for catch-up time on the weekends for those times when life gets in the way of your daily time with the Lord.

This method was developed from time-tested inductive Bible Study methods for a group of ladies in our small group who wanted to learn to study the Bible for themselves instead of being told what the Bible said in a commentary.

Since then, this method and the Or-thot-om-eo Bible Study Workshops have helped people in 4 countries on three continents and multiple states in the US learn to study the Bible for themselves with the help of the Holy Spirit and some simple, yet effective, Bible Study Methods.

Simply follow the instructions and examples on the next pages to begin your journey to the depths of the richness of God's Word.

For information on hosting or attending one of our workshops or training conferences, email us at info@thecruciblesfire.org.

TEXT

Use this space to write out word for word the verses you have chosen to study broken down into clauses.

Reference: Colossians 1:3-7

(3) We always thank God,
the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
when we pray for you,
for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all the saints because of the hope reserved for you in heaven.
You have already heard about this hope in the word of truth, the gospel that has come to you.
It is bearing fruit and growing all over the world, just as it has among you since the day you heard it and came to truly appreciate God's grace.
You learned this from Epaphras,
our dearly loved fellow servant.
He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf.

NOTES

Always? How does one do that?

I wonder how they heard? How did they show love to the saints?

What is "fruit"
and how do we know it is growing?

Who is Epaphrus?

OBSERVE

Record what you actually observe in the text. Be sure to record all that is there, but be careful to avoid adding things that aren't.

Who:

God, Jesus, Paul (writer), Colossians (hearers), Epaphras

What:

Paul is thanking God for them. He is praying for them. They are bearing fruit all over the world. They are taught by Epiphra.

When:

Unknown from the text. Research = Paul's first imprisonment in Rome.

Where:

*Colassae, Rome (Paul is writing from there)
-- Look this up in a Bible Atlas or maps
(Google, Blue Letter Bible, or Bible Hub)*

How:

You will not always have an answer for every item!

Study Software*

INTERPRET

What do your observations MEAN? Record the definitions for 2 to 3 keywords per verse or other important phrases. Research using software, books, or Blue Letter Bible,

V. 3 - Pray - Strong's:

proseúchomai, pros-yoo'-kham-ahee; to pray to God, i.e. supplicate, worship

Vine's: "to pray," is always used of "prayer"

to God, and is the most frequent word in this respect,

V. 4 - Saints - Vine's: fundamentally signifies "separated" (among the Greeks, dedicated to the gods), and hence, in Scripture in its moral and spiritual significance, separated from sin and therefore consecrated to God, sacred.

V. 5 - Hope - Strong's: to anticipate, usually with pleasure); expectation (abstractly or concretely) or confidence:—faith, hope

Gospel - euangélion, yoo-ang-ghel'-ee-an;

a good message, i.e. the gospel: Good news or good tidings.

NOTES

Note the use of Vine's Expository Dictionary of Old and New Testament Words in addition to the Strong's Exhaustive Concordance.

APPLY

Scripture is meant to bring change in our lives, to make us more like Jesus. Use these pages to make specific application to your life.

S - Sins to Avoid

Not in this text

P - Promises to Claim

Not in this text

A - Actions / Attitudes to Pursue

Thankfulness for other saints, consistent prayer, Hopefulness, faithfulness

C - Commands to Obey

Not really in this text, though one could extract a command to pray, be thankful, and bear fruit

E - Examples to Follow

Paul: praying and thankfulness. The Colossians: Faithfulness, fruit-bearing Epaphras: faithfulness and concern for others

T - Truths to Accept

God is the Father of Christ. Epaphras was dearly loved and faithful.

NOTES

Not every verse will have an answer to every question. It is ok to leave it blank or fill it in as noted here.

Note this wasn't explicitly commanded in the text.

Simple truths learned directly from the passage

REFLECT

These pages are designed to help you think about what you've studied. Don't be afraid to stop and listen to the Holy Spirit. What did you learn about God, yourself, and your relationship with Jesus?

What did these passages reveal about ...

... God?

Though God wasn't directly addressed or spoken of, other than to be declared as the Father of Jesus Christ, we understand from this text that He apparently is ready to listen to the thankful prayers of the saints on behalf of others.

... you?

I realized while reading that my prayer life tends to be focused on ME, on my needs or things I am asking for. I need to spend more time being thankful to God for those both in my life and those I have heard about that are faithful, like Paul did with the Colossians.

... your relationship with Jesus?

Again, not just in prayer, but in action, my "walk" tends to be very ME focused. Both Paul and Epaphras seemed to have more concern for others, namely the Colossians, than they did for themselves. That is convicting to me and a point of attention.

PRAY

As in the beginning, we should always close in prayer thanking God for the gift of understanding and our time alone with Him. Prayer doesn't have to be perfect. Just talk to God like you would a friend!

Father,

Thank you for loving me and leaving your Word with me to study. Thank you for teaching me all your ways and giving me the strength to follow them.

Now, use the space below to write out a prayer of your own!

Father, thank you once again for meeting me and teaching me.

Thank you for the example Paul and Epaphras are in this short text regarding the faithfulness of the saints and praying with a thankful heart.

Thank you for the saints and people whom you've put in my path, like you did Epaphras for Colossae. Thank you for my parents, my wife, and my pastor. They are all such faithful warriors for the Kingdom. Help me today to spend less time looking for how I can do better, and help me to simply be thankful for the people and things you have already brought into my life to draw me closer to you.

Thank you for Jesus, thank you for Salvation.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

REFLECT

These pages are designed to help you think about what you've studied. Don't be afraid to stop and listen to the Holy Spirit. What did you learn about God, yourself, and your relationship with Jesus?

What did these passages reveal about ...

... God?

... you?

... your relationship with Jesus?

PRAY

As in the beginning, we should always close in prayer thanking God for the gift of understanding and our time alone with Him. Prayer doesn't have to be perfect. Just talk to God like you would a friend!

Father,

Thank you for loving me and leaving your Word with me to study.
Thank you for teaching me all your ways and giving me the strength to follow them.
