- 6th AIM ANNUAL MEETING: June 25 – 27, 2026, service times will be as following: Thursday and Friday night @7 pm Saturday morning @10 am. The Speaker will be Dr. Bill Ury. Hosted Daystar Church, 171 Trademark Drive SW, Huntsville, AL 35824.
- AIM YOUTH CAMP: We are thrilled about our upcoming AIM Youth Camp at "Camp Cypress" in Forest, Mississippi. Scheduled for July 20-24, this camp is for students ages 9–18! It promises to be an amazing opportunity for growing in faith, forming friendships, and enjoying fun activities together. If you have a child or teenager in this age group, don't forget to mark your calendars. To register, please scan the QR code below!

- BUILDING FUND: We are thrilled to announce that our Building Fund has exceeded $28,000. While the remodeling process has commenced, our goal remains at $60,000, we still need to raise over $30,000. We firmly believe that significant opportunities await our church, and achieving these goals will require our collective faith and commitment. We invite you to pray about how the Lord may guide you to contribute, whether through a special gift or ongoing support.

The Wilderness
“Remember the Wilderness Journey”
Deuteronomy 8:1-11 NLT

1. Remember the Wilderness Journey is our Testimony.
- Remember how God ____ you by His Spirit.
 - Character is not proven in _____ but in testing.
 - God humbles us in our wilderness to _____ us to live by His Word.
 - Remember God _____ us for our own good.
 - Hebrews 12:10-13 NLT

2. Remember the Wilderness Journeys Will End.
- The wilderness is a season, not a _____.
 - The wilderness is temporary; the promise is _____.
 - The wilderness will end in God’s _____ not ours.

3. Remember so You Don’t Forget.
- Blessings should increase our _____, not decrease our dependence.
 - Many people remember God in hardship but forget Him in _____.
 - When you remember the wilderness, you’ll be less likely to _____ God.
 - _____ about your wilderness experiences so you don’t forget God.
