Easter reveals from whom — and from where — salvation flows.

Jonah 2:2-9

Recently our lives have been impacted because _____ flows in a specific place flows in a specific direction.

Jesus promises his followers _____ to the _____.

According to Jonah, where does that salvation come from?

1. It starts downstream from the problem.

How did Jonah end up on a ship that was going to sink because of a storm?

Where did the sailors on the ship look for their salvation?

How does Jonah trace his path downstream in these verses?

- Bad:

- Worse:

- Even Worse:

Jonah is the only prophet _____ compared himself to.

2. It flows upstream from there.

If the Lord's salvation starts all the way downstream, from there it has to flow in a direction contrary to the _____ of _____.

Because of the Lord's command, the great fish _____ Jonah onto dry land.

Who is the enemy God will cause to do the same thing with us?

For me to remember:

Whether we say it like this: "Salvation comes from the Lord," or like this: "Christ is risen, he is risen indeed!" we're saying that life to the full flows upstream.
