God's message to his servers ensures the health of those they serve.

2 Timothy 4:1-8

Ministry =

Ministers =

These words are not addressed directly _____ you, but they are _____ you and they are _____ you.

1. His instructions ensure what they serve.

A summary of Paul's instructions: _____ the _____.

Why are these seemingly obvious instructions not always easy for the minister to follow?

In order for Timothy to follow these instructions, he needs to keep his _____, or stay _____.

2. His incentives ensure that they serve it.

Now that his time on earth was almost up, what was in store for Paul?

Who else gets this same reward?

On what basis is the reward given?

Who's to blame for all the tasty (rather than healthy) doctrine that gets served in our world?

How is Jesus' reward the solution to this problem?

For me to remember:

The good news of Jesus is the healthy doctrine those in the pew need to be served. And the good news of Jesus ensures that those behind the pulpit continue to serve it.
