The people fit for Jesus' feast are those who see his feast is fit for them.

Matthew 22:1–14

Jesus compares life in his kingdom to a _____
_____.

Part 1: No one gets invited on their own _____.

Part 2: No one can attend on their own _____.

1. Jesus' feast is fit for us as we gather.

The first part of our service focuses on _____.

What words at the beginning of the service remind us of our baptism?

During our services, how do we do all over again what first happened in our baptism?

2. Jesus' feast is fit for us as we converse.

What do we say at the beginning of our conversation time to indicate that the groom is with us?

A lectionary is a _____ for the Scripture readings we hear in our services.

When it's our turn to stand up and speak, what do we say?

3. Jesus' feast is fit for us as we dine.

What's on the menu for our meal?

What blessings do we get from this food?

_____ is the difference between the many who are invited and the few of those invited who attend.

For me to remember:

May we always be eager to attend our King's banquet, certain that his feast is perfectly fit for us.
