When the Good Shepherd is at the head, a blessed community is built

Acts 2:42-47

Why do churches often end up with lots of problems?

1. The world's ways are abandoned

What were the 3 chief blessings God worked in the early church?

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

How is Good News in some ways already like the early church from Acts 2?

Good News too is full of _____.

2. God's grace is given

What are some reasons the earliest Christians did not gather together and form a church?

We here at Good News (and the earliest Christians) gather together because the _____ gave his _____ and transformed us.

God's grace alone would be _____, but he doesn't stop there.

For me to remember:

Christ, the Good Shepherd, gave us eternal salvation and transformed us. But he doesn't stop with just this blessing. He brings us together that we might pursue and enjoy a blessed, Christ-centered community full of generosity, fellowship, and truth.
