In life, we want Christ's light, not our own supposed "sight"

John 9:1-7, 13-17, 34-39

People like self-help books because they want to make their lives better through their own _____.

All people are searching for some kind of _____ because there is a divide between us and a holy God.

1. Christ's light exposes our "sight" as blindness

What question did the Pharisees ask Jesus?

The Pharisees obeyed human _____ instead of God's law.

Jesus makes clear that God's law was never only about worshipping with only our _____, but also our _____.

2. Christ's light replaces that blindness with true sight

Jesus told the crowd that it is what is within a person, their _____, that defiles them.

Jesus' purpose in harsh words was _____. He didn't want the people to stay in their misunderstanding.

If we cannot be righteous on our own, how does God solve that problem for us?

What is the best evidence God gives us of how Jesus has cleansed us from sin?

For me to remember:

God doesn't give us a ten-step program to righteousness, he gives us a one step program: believe in Jesus and his work to save you.
