Come and See the King

The Gospel of John: Why Should I Believe? · Week 06 · October 18, 2026

WHAT I LEARNED TODAY

Two men started following Jesus. Jesus asked them, “What are you looking for?” and then said, “Come and you will see.” After one day with Jesus, Andrew ran and got his brother Simon. Philip got his friend Nathanael. Nathanael wasn’t sure about Jesus, but Philip just said, “Come and see.” When Nathanael met Jesus, Jesus already knew all about him. Jesus is the King, and He wants everyone to come and see Him.

Memory verse: “Come and see.” John 1:46

TALK ABOUT IT AT DINNER

1. Jesus asked the two men, “What are you looking for?” If Jesus asked you that, what would you say?

Parents, answer this one too. Kids love hearing what you are looking for from Jesus.

2. Andrew met Jesus and ran to get his brother. Who would you run and get?

3. Nathanael wasn’t sure about Jesus. Philip didn’t argue; he said, “Come and see.” Why is that a good thing to say when someone isn’t sure?

Younger kids: we don’t have to know every answer. We can just invite people to meet Jesus.

4. Jesus knew Nathanael before they ever met. Jesus knows everything about you too. Is that scary or good news?

Older kids: good news. He knows everything and still says, “Come.” We never have to pretend with Jesus.

One person I could say “come and see” to is...

FAMILY CHALLENGE

As a family, pick one person (a neighbor, a cousin, a friend from school) and invite them to come and see: to church next Sunday, to dinner, or to read a story from John with you. Say the memory verse together every night at bedtime. By Friday, see who can say it without looking.

☐ We picked someone to invite ☐ We said “come and see” ☐ I said the memory verse

PRAY TOGETHER

“Dear Jesus, thank You for saying ‘come and see.’ You already know everything about us and You still want us. Help our family invite someone to come and see You this week. Amen.”
