DAY 2: GOD CAN USE THIS TOO

Read Romans 8:28

There are probably things in your life you wish were different. Maybe something feels unfair. Maybe something is hard or confusing. It can feel like those moments are just problems. But God can use all things. That includes the parts of your life you may not like or would never choose. God isn't limited by your situation. He can take something difficult and turn it into something good. He can grow you, teach you, and even help others through it.

Fill in the blank: "God can use this situation for good: _____."

DAY 3: PLOT TWIST

Read Isaiah 55:8 NlrV

Have you ever watched a movie where something totally unexpected happens? You thought you knew what was going to happen, and then—plot twist! God's ways are kind of like that. Sometimes life doesn't go as you planned. Things feel confusing. You might think, "This doesn't make sense." But God sees the whole story. You only see a small part. What feels like a problem to you might be part of something bigger God is doing. God isn't confused. God isn't surprised. He is working in ways you can't always understand. And that's okay. You don't have to figure everything out. Trust that He already has.

Activity: Close your eyes for 10 seconds. Take a deep breath, and say quietly: "God, I trust You."

DAY 4: GET BACK UP

Read Proverbs 24:16

Have you ever tripped, fallen, or totally wiped out? Maybe in a game, during sports, or just walking and not paying attention. It can feel embarrassing. You might even want to stay down. But what matters most is not the fall. It's what you do next. The Bible says a godly person may fall, but they get back up. That means messing up isn't the end of your story. You might make a bad choice. You might say something wrong. You might feel like you failed. But God isn't finished with you. He helps you get back up. He helps you learn. He helps you grow.

Activity: Gently drop a ball, or pretend to bounce one. Each time it hits the ground, say: "Get back up!" Do it five times. Say this out loud: "With God's help, I can get back up again."

Read Psalm 37:5

Prayer: “Dear God, help me trust You, even when things are hard or confusing. Remind me that You are always working for good. I choose to believe in what You can do, not what I can do. In Jesus’ name. Amen.”
