IN REPAIR

BIG IDEA

Jesus came to repair our relationship with God.

ABOUT THIS WEEK

Repairs like gluing a broken trophy are simple compared to restoring someone's health. This week, we'll see how Jesus healed a woman who suffered for years and brought a young girl back to life, proving nothing was beyond his power to restore. Jesus also showed that his power went beyond physical needs—because, ultimately, Jesus came to repair our relationship with God.

DISCUSSION

- When something breaks, are you more likely to try to fix it or just buy a new one?
- Have you experienced something breaking only to get it fixed and find the repaired version was better than the original?
- Have you ever broken something and couldn't fix it?
- How have you felt when something important to you—like friendship, trust, confidence, or hope—was broken? What emotions came up?
- What do you think it felt like to be the father or the woman in the story—holding onto hope in impossible situations? What would it look like for you to have hope like theirs?
- What do you think of the idea that God can help fix the broken things we see and experience in the world? When was a time when God fixed something broken in your life?
- Read 2 Corinthians 5:18–20. Does knowing God wants to reconcile with us change the way you see God? What does this reveal about God's feelings towards you?
- What holds you back from allowing Jesus to repair your relationship with God? Why do you think that barrier is there?
- What area of your faith feels beyond fixing? What would it look like to pray for hope in that area and actually practice hope this week?
- What does it look like to let Jesus heal your relationship with God? What is one step you can make towards allowing that to happen in your life?
