

“Immediately:” The Gospel of Mark’s Concise Guide to Following Jesus
“Jesus Lord of the Sabbath”

Mark 2:23-3:6
Local Outreach Sunday
The Lord’s Day Morning
September 27, 2026

The laws of God were not designed to oppress or hurt but were given for good. These laws were designed to encourage love for God and love for others. At times, human tradition would add layers to the laws of God that resulted in a lack of love. Jesus is approached in this passage about the law of the Sabbath. Jesus teaches those who were listening not just about the point of the Sabbath, but, more importantly, about who he is.

The revelation of Jesus, rabbi and teacher.

1. Jesus _____ a bold claim about who he is (2:23-28).
2. Jesus _____ this bold claim about who he is (3:1-6).

The response to Jesus, the Lord of the Sabbath:

1. _____ in Jesus (Love God)
2. _____ like Jesus (Love your neighbor)