Old Testament Reading

Micah 7:18–20

[18] Who is a God like you, pardoning iniquity and passing over transgression for the remnant of his inheritance? He does not retain his anger forever, because he delights in steadfast love.

[19] He will again have compassion on us; he will tread our iniquities under foot. You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

[20] You will show faithfulness to Jacob and steadfast love to Abraham, as you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

P But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

C Thanks be to Thee, O Lord.

All who find pardoning mercy have reason to stand amazed, when the Lord takes away the guilt that it may not condemn us. He breaks the power of sin, that it may not have dominion over us. When God forgives sin, he casts it into the depth of the sea, never to rise again. This relates to Christ, and the success of the gospel to the end time, the restoration of Israel, and the final prevailing of true faith in all lands. The Lord will perform his truth and mercy, not one jot or tittle of it shall fall to the ground: faithful is He that has promised, who also will do it.

Gospel Reading

St. Luke 15:1-10

[1] Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear [Jesus]. [2] And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, “This man receives sinners and eats with them.” [3] So he told them this parable: [4] “What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country, and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? [5] And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. [6] And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’ [7] Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. [8] “Or what woman, having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she finds it? [9] And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’ [10] Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

The parable of the lost sheep is very applicable to the great work of man’s redemption. The lost sheep represents the sinner as departed from God, and exposed to certain ruin if not brought back to him, yet not desirous to return. Christ is earnest in bringing sinners home. In the parable of the lost piece of silver, that which is lost, is one piece, of small value compared with the rest. Yet the woman seeks diligently till she finds it. This represents the various means and methods God uses to bring lost souls home to himself, and the Savior’s joy on their return to him. How careful then should we be that our repentance is unto salvation!

P But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

C Thanks be to Thee, O Lord.

Intercessory Prayer

P Gracious God our Father, we offer You our praise and thanksgiving this day for the love which moved You to give up Your only begotten Son Jesus Christ for our salvation.

C Thank You, God our Father.

P We praise and thank You that Your self-sacrificing love has provided the perfect example of a father's love, and we pray that despite human imperfection our husbands and fathers may be inspired and empowered by Your example.

C Hear our prayer, beloved Father.

P We praise and thank You for the divine wisdom which enabled us to love, and decreed that the love of a man and woman for one another was to become the source of new life.

C Thank You, God our Father.

P We ask Your forgiveness for the many ways in which we have trivialized that love into nothing more than a means of sinful self-satisfaction and have squandered Your precious gift of new life.

C Cleanse and forgive us, beloved Father.

P Remind Your men that fatherhood begins with life at the instant of conception and that their responsibility to the child whom they have helped to create is infinitely a precious gift from God.

C Hear our prayer, beloved Father.

P In a time when Your will for marriage and family is widely disregarded and despised, bless those husbands and fathers who conscientiously seek to be the Christ-like head of their households, putting the needs of their wives and children before their own.

C Hear our prayer, beloved Father.

P Renew our faith that the world may see Your love through us and come to know You through Jesus Christ Your Son.

C Amen.

Welcome!

Volume LXXIX

June 21, 2026

Number 25

Enter reverently, meditate quietly, worship sincerely, serve Christ faithfully.

It is our heartfelt prayer that all who worships here this day may encounter the love of our Savior. According to His promise, He is here today reaching out to us in love through Word and Sacrament. If you are seeking a church home, we hope that you have found it here so that we may rejoice in serving the Lord together. If we can be of service to you or your family in any way please do not hesitate to ask.

LIFE THOUGHTS/PRAYER: Trinity III – God’s love and Christ’s forgiveness come to us and carry us. Afraid and unable on our own, His words and ways bear us home every time to rejoicing (Luke 15:1-10). Let us seek with Him to rescue His little ones, no matter where they’ve wandered or how they’ve wounded (1 Timothy 1:12-17), that we may celebrate together. Prayer: Holy Father, accompany me with Your grace through this collapsing world that no more may be lost. Amen.

ATTENDANCE CARDS – MEMBERS (yellow) & VISITORS (blue), remember to fill out an attendance card listing all in attendance for your family. Please note any changes, otherwise you do not have to fill in the address information each week. It is appreciated if first-time visitors would include their address and phone number. Email and work numbers are helpful for inner-office needs. By filling out a card, your attendance and communing is recorded, and your comments are addressed. It is not necessary to indicate common or individual cup. Place cards in the offering plate or give to an usher on your way out. Thanks!

- The Cry-Room and the four row spans directly in front of it are reserved for parents with small children. Thank you.
- Hearing devices are available from the ushers if you need this assistance.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated next on Sunday, June 28 at 9:30 AM.

“Let a man examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup.”

1 Corinthians 11:28

The Word of God teaches that the bread and wine of the Sacrament are the true Body and Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. This precious gift of God’s grace is to be received in a sense of reverent awe after careful self-examination. The Bible defines that self-examination as a personal recognition of the real presence of Christ’s Body and Blood in the Sacrament, and a repentant acknowledgment of my own sinfulness recognizing my absolute dependence upon Christ as the only source of forgiveness for my sin. Scripture further instructs that our participation in Christ’s Body and Blood together is the most profound and powerful way for Christians to acknowledge their unity in the faith. That is to say, when we share in the Body and Blood of Jesus at this altar, we are thereby indicating our common commitment to all of the doctrines of God’s Word as they are taught in this congregation. Because of these Biblical convictions, we respectfully request that visitors, who wish to join us in receiving the Body and Blood of Christ and thereby identify with our confession of Bible truth, speak with one of our pastors before attending the Lord’s Supper.

10:45 AM – Adults

Matthew: Verse by verse study of the 1st book of the New Testament. (Pastor Cholak, Bible Class Room)

Enduring Faith: This adult class looks at the lessons the children are learning, with an adult perspective. New members and parents of Sunday School children are encouraged to come. All are welcome. (Bill Prestwood, C102)

Lutheran Confessions: Our Lutheran Confessions were developed out of a genuine concern with false teachings obscuring the glory and merit of our Savior. These unconditional affirmations are as understandable and poignant today as when they were written. Learn their history and development, as well as their relevance in the daily life of a Christian. Through discussion, you will see how others are asking the same questions and how Scripture offers solid, reliable answers. (James Kriegel, C101)

Women's Bible Study – Altogether Beautiful: A Study of the Song of Songs, by Heidi Goehmann (published by Concordia Publishing House). Walking through this study, you will learn how beautiful God sees you, but more important, you'll learn to ground your identity in the one who makes you beautiful—Jesus Christ. (Sarah Baughman, Family Room, Church)

Applying Scripture to Current Events: This class for young adults will focus on today's headlines and current events and discuss these topics in light of scripture and how the verses covered each week apply to everyday life. (Adam White, C106)

The Parables of Jesus: While Karl Baughman is out of town, Garry Stuhr will be teaching on the parables of Jesus. Come join us to learn about the parables that Jesus used to teach His followers, and us, about the Kingdom of God! (Garry Stuhr, Cafeteria)

Potluck F.E.A.S.T. is TODAY for Father's Day!

Hunter has made a brisket! Join us in the Bible Class Room after Sunday School for F.E.A.S.T. (Fellowship, Eating, And Sharing Together). Gather together, share a meal, and deepen the relationships that make our congregation so special! Whether you are a new member looking to meet people or a long-time attendee hoping to reconnect, this event is for everyone. It's a casual, welcoming environment where conversation flows as freely as the coffee. There will be carts set up in the Family Room this morning with power strips for crockpots. The ovens will be available to keep some things warm, and the school has said that we can use their warmers, too! The board will provide drinks and dinnerware. We are deeply grateful for everyone who joined us this week and helped make Vacation Bible School such a joyful and meaningful experience. Your presence, support, and enthusiasm helped create a space filled with faith, learning, laughter, and love.

A special thank you to our many dedicated volunteers whose time, talents, creativity, and hearts made this event possible. From planning and preparation to teaching, leading, serving, and cleaning up, every act of service helped bring this week to life. We truly could not have done it without you.

We also extend heartfelt thanks to all who prayed, supported behind the scenes, and encouraged our team throughout the week. Your love and commitment helped reflect Christ in every moment.

Thank you for helping us share the love of Jesus with our children and community. We are blessed beyond measure by this church family.
