

Paul, an apostle—not from men or by man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised him from the dead—and all the brothers who are with me:

To the churches of Galatia.

Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins to rescue us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to bring us to himself by the glory forever and ever. Amen.

No Other Gospel

* I am amazed that you are so quickly turning away from him who called you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel—² not that there is another gospel, but there are some who are troubling you and want to distort the gospel of Christ. ³ But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach to you a gospel contrary to what we have preached to you, a curse be on him! ⁴ As we have said before, I now say again: If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what you received, a curse be on him!

⁵ For am I now trying to persuade people, or God? Or am I striving to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

The Origin of Paul's Gospel

¹ For I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel preached by me is not of human origin. ² For I did not receive it from a human source and I was not taught it, but it came by a revelation of Jesus Christ.

³ For you have heard about my former way of life in Judaism: I intensely persecuted God's church and tried to destroy it. ⁴ I advanced in Judaism beyond many contemporaries among my people, because I was extremely zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. ⁵ But when God, who from my mother's womb set me apart and called me by his grace, was pleased ⁶ to reveal his Son in me, so that I could preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone. ⁷ I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who had become apostles before me; instead I went to Arabia and came back to Damascus.

⁸ Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to get to know Cephas, and I stayed with him fifteen days. ⁹ But I didn't see any of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother. ¹⁰ I declare in the sight of God: I am not lying in what I write to you.

¹¹ Afterward I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ¹² I remained personally unknown to the Judean churches that are in Christ. ¹³ They simply kept hearing, "He who formerly persecuted us now preaches the faith he once tried to destroy." ¹⁴ And they glorified God because of me.

“ So Christ has truly set us free. Now make sure that you stay free, and don't get tied up again in slavery to the law.”

_____ through the _____.

“ Listen! I, Paul, tell you this: If you are counting on circumcision to make you right with God, then Christ will be of no benefit to you. I'll say it again. If you are trying to find favor with God by being circumcised, you must obey every regulation in the whole law of Moses. For if you are trying to make yourselves right with God by keeping the law, you have been cut off from Christ! You have fallen away from God's grace.”

Free to _____.

What counts? _____.

“ But we who live by the Spirit eagerly wait to receive by faith the righteousness God has promised to us. For when we place our faith in Christ Jesus, there is no benefit in being circumcised or being uncircumcised. What is important is faith expressing itself in love.”

Who's calling? _____ . (_____)

“ You were running the race so well. Who has held you back from following the truth? It certainly isn't God, for he is the one who called you to freedom. This false teaching is like a little yeast that spreads through the whole batch of dough! I am trusting the Lord to keep you from believing false teachings. God will judge that person, whoever he is, who has been confusing you.

Dear brothers and sisters, if I were still preaching that you must be circumcised - as some say I do - why am I still being persecuted? If I were no longer preaching salvation through the cross of Christ, no one would be offended. I just wish that those troublemakers who want to mutilate you by circumcision would mutilate themselves.”

“ My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.”

~ JOHN 10:27 (NLT)

Which command? _____.

“ For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love. For the whole law can be summed up in this one command: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' But if you are always biting and devouring one another, watch out! Beware of destroying one another.”

“ So I say, let the Holy Spirit guide your lives. Then you won't be doing what your sinful nature craves. The sinful nature wants to do evil, which is just the opposite of what the Spirit wants. And the Spirit gives us desires that are the opposite of what the sinful nature desires. These two forces are constantly fighting each other, so you are not free to carry out your good intentions. But when you are directed by the Spirit, you are not under obligation to the law of Moses.

When you follow the desires of your sinful nature, the results are very clear: sexual immorality, impurity, lustful pleasures, idolatry, sorcery, hostility, quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, dissension, division, envy, drunkenness, wild parties, and other sins like these. Let me tell you again, as I have before, that anyone living that sort of life will not inherit the Kingdom of God.”

“ But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!

Those who belong to Christ Jesus have nailed the passions and desires of their sinful nature to his cross and crucified them there. Since we are living by the Spirit, let us follow the Spirit's leading in every part of our lives. Let us not become conceited, or provoke one another, or be jealous of one another.”

“ Remain in me, and I will remain in you. For a branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine, and you cannot be fruitful unless you remain in me. 'Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing.' ”

~ JOHN 15:4-5 (NLT)

SO WHAT?

“ For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love.”
