THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Today we continue our series, "A Heart of Worship." We will examine Revelation 5 as John's attention turns from the Father to the Son. John identifies Jesus in several ways.

☾ It seems that while they waited, they worshipped. Let me encourage you to do the same. Waiting is never fun, but it does not have to be passive. While you wait, worship. ☽

He calls Him the Lion of Judah, the Root of David, and a Lamb that looked as if it had been slain. Within this chapter, you can almost feel the anticipation rising as the scene builds toward a victorious conclusion.

Initially, John sees a scroll in the right hand of the Father. At first, it seems that no one is worthy to open the scroll and John begins to weep. However, one of the elders tells him to stop because the Lion of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered and can open the scroll. I cannot help but wonder what the time lapse was like from the moment John sees the scroll until he realizes Jesus can open it. How long was it? What was the anticipation like? In the end, what a relief, mixed with excitement, it must have been.

As I consider these things, it reminds me of times in my life when it felt like there was a pause. There have been times that I have prayed for something, but God has not answered, at least not yet. There is a time that is a pause. Much like John had to wait, I have had to wait. However, God inevitably moves in His time, and there is that sense of rejoicing and celebration.

Maybe, this morning, you find yourself in a bit of a pause. Maybe you are waiting on God, but He has not moved yet. Let me encourage you to take a close look at this scene in heaven. It seems that while they waited, they worshipped. Let me encourage you to do the same. Waiting is never fun, but it does not have to be passive. While you wait, worship.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL
